NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

By a trust deed, bearing date the 24th of October 1812, executed by Messrs. Robert Williams and Frederick Hohler, who carried on trade as Merchants and Auctioneers, at Calcutta, for many years last past, under the firm of Williams and Hohler, all their joint and separate property, outstanding debts, demands and claims of every description, due, owing or belonging to them or either of them, was conveyed to George Cruttenden and James Mackillop, of Calcutta aforesaid, Esquires, for the benefit of their Creditors.

From the extensive dealings the said firm of Williams and Hohler had in India and in Europe for many years, the Trustees deem it necessary to give this public notice to the Creditors of the said firm, that they intend to make a final dividend, at their house in Calcutta, under the said trust deed, on the 1st January 1815.

The said Trustees beg leave to request, that the Debtors and Creditors of the said firm of Williams and Hohler, in Europe, will be pleased to pay their respective debts, to verify their demands, and lodge their claims with the following persons, in sufficient time to be received by the said Trustees at Calcutta, to enable them to carry the said trust into execution.

A copy of the trust deed may be seen with the several persons hereinafter named, who are authorized by the said Trustees to adjust accounts with, and receive payment from such persons as are indebted to the said firm of Williams and Hohler.

The said Trustees beg leave to state, that since the said trust deed has been executed, both Mr. Williams and Mr. Hohler, died; the former leaving a widow and seven infant daughters, and the latter leaving a widow and three infant children, without any means of support whatsoever, other than the bounty of the public. From the fair character the deceased bore, the subscriptions in India have been as usual, liberal; but the amount still very inadequate for the purposes required.
