DECLARATION.

THE armies of the Allied Powers have occupied the French Capital. The Allied Sovereigns meet the wishes of the French nation.

They declare, That if the conditions of peace required stronger guarantees when the object in view was the restraining of Buonaparte's ambition, they ought to be more favourable, as soon as by returning to a wise Government, France herself shall offer the assurance of tranquillity. The Allied Sovereigns proclaim, therefore,

That they will treat no more with Napoleon Buonaparte, or with any of his family ;

That they respect the integrity of ancient France, such as it existed under her legitimate Kings ; they may even do more, because they always profess the principle that, for the happiness of Europe, France ought to be great and strong.

That they will recognise and guarantee the Constitution which the French nation shall give itself. They accordingly invite the Senate to appoint a Provisional Government, capable of providing for the wants of Administration, and of preparing such a Constitution as may be adapted to the French people.

The intentions which I have expressed are common to me with all the Allied Powers.

ALEXANDER.

By order of His Imperial Majesty,
The Secretary of State,

COUNT DE NESSELRODE.

Paris, March 31, 1814, at three o'clock in the afternoon.
