Whitehall, April 8, 1814.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about twelve o'clock in the night of the 25th of March last, Henry Trigg, of Berden, in the county of Essex, shoemaker, hearing some persons in the shop adjoining to his house, went with his father, Henry Trigg, to the door of the shop, which opened into the street, and they there met two men coming out of the shop, one of whom rushed by them, and escaped. The other, having been knocked down, and secured by the son, was delivered into the hands of his father. Henry Trigg then went in pursuit of the man who had escaped; but, upon hearing a scuffle take place between his father and the man he had left him in charge of, and fearing lest he should break from him, he returned to his father's assistance; and while they were all three struggling upon the ground, the person who had escaped, returned and fired a gun or pistol, but without effect; and in a very short space of time he came up to Henry Trigg, the son, and, with a dreadful imprecation, swore that he would do for him, and immediately fired a second time, and shot Henry Trigg, the son, in the left side of his breast, which occasioned his instant death.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of the offenders (except the person who actually fired at and shot the said Henry Trigg,) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her or their accomplice or accomplices in the said murder; or to such person or persons who shall apprehend and convict the said offenders or any of them, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted thereof.—Such reward to be paid upon conviction of any one or more of the offenders by the inhabitants of the neighbourhood of Berden.
