

THE Partnership lately subsisting between John Francis and Christopher Holmes, at Norwich, in the business of Shawl, Bombazine, and Silk-Manufacturers, under the firm of Francis and Holmes, was on the 25th day of March last dissolved by mutual consent, and the said business will in future be carried on by the said John Francis, on his own account only, who is duly authorised to receive and pay all debts due to or from the said late firm.—Dated the 7th day of April 1814.

John Francis.
Chris. Holmes.

HENRY DOWNTON, deceased.

ALL persons having any claims or demands upon the estate or effects of Henry Downton, who formerly lived in the service of the Earl of Harewood, and afterwards resided at Epsom, in the County of Surrey, deceased, are requested immediately to send in their respective accounts to Mr. Jonathan Downton, Canal-Bridge, Blackwall, the Administrator of the deceased; and all persons indebted to the said deceased are required forthwith to pay their debts to the said Jonathan Downton.

ALL persons having any legal debts, dues, or demands on Richard Davison Claringbould, of the Town and Port of Doror, in the County of Kent, Gentleman, and which were so due on the 5th day of June 1812, are requested to send the full particulars thereof, accompanied by an affidavit verifying the same, sworn to before a Commissioner of one of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or before a Master Extraordinary in Chancery, to Mr. Shipden, Solicitor, Doror, on or before Friday the 15th day of April instant, in order that the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Richard Davison Claringbould may apply the produce of such estate and effects in discharge of the said debts, dues and demands, or as far as the same will thereto extend, according to the provisions of the Act of Parliament made and passed in the 52d year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled, "An Act for the Relief of certain Insolvent Debtors in England."

WHEREAS Margaret Stackhouse, late of Burnsall, in the County of York, Spinster, deceased, did by her will dated the 28th October 1803 (among other legacies), give and bequeath unto James Tennant, son of John Tennant, late of Leeds, in the said County of York, deceased, and to his sister Mary, each the sum of 50l. and unto Richard Tennant, formerly of Burnsall aforesaid, the sum of 100l. subject to the following proviso (that is to say), "Provided always and it is my will, and I do hereby expressly declare, that if the said James Tennant, Mary the sister of the said James Tennant, and Richard Tennant, or any of them, cannot be found or made out to be living within the space of one year next after my decease, the same having been advertised three times in the London Gazette, then and in such case I do hereby direct, that their several and respective legacies, or such of them as shall not appear within the time aforesaid, shall lapse and fall to all intents and purposes, as if the same had never been mentioned in this my will; and the same I do hereby order and direct shall be disposed of, as the residuum of my estate and effects is hereinafter directed, and not vest in any of their issue or legal representatives, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding," and the said Testatrix appointed William Carr, of Bolton Abbey, in the County of York, Clerk, and William Carr, of Stackhouse, in the Parish of Giggleswick, in the said County of York, Gent. Joint Executors of her said will, who have duly proved the same, and taken upon themselves the execution of the trusts thereof; and the said Margaret Stackhouse the Testatrix, died without revoking her said will, on or about the 22d day of February last.

Notice is therefore hereby given, in pursuance of the aforesaid proviso, contained in the will of the said Margaret Stackhouse, that if they the said James Tennant, Mary the sister of the said James Tennant, and Richard Tennant, or any of them, do not appear and claim their said several legacies, within the space of one year next, after the said Testatrix's decease, the same will, in pursuance of the said proviso, lapse, and be disposed of by her said Executors, as the residuum of the said Testatrix's estate and effects is by the said will directed.—Given under our hands the 26th day of March 1814.

W. CARR, of Bolton-Abbey.
WM. CARR, of Stackhouse.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

By a trust deed, bearing date the 24th of October 1812, executed by Messrs. Robert Williams and Frederick Hohler, who carried on trade as Merchants and Auctioneers, at Calcutta, for many years last past, under the firm of Williams and Hohler, all their joint and separate property, outstanding debts, demands and claims of every description, due, owing or belonging to them or either of them, was conveyed to George Cruttenden and James Mackillop, of Calcutta aforesaid, Esquires, for the benefit of their Creditors.

From the extensive dealings the said firm of Williams and Hohler had in India and in Europe for many years, the Trustees deem it necessary to give this public notice to the Creditors of the said firm, that they intend to make a final dividend, at their house in Calcutta, under the said trust deed, on the 1st January 1815.

The said Trustees beg leave to request, that the Debtors and Creditors of the said firm of Williams and Hohler, in Europe, will be pleased to pay their respective debts, to verify their demands, and lodge their claims with the following persons, in sufficient time to be received by the said Trustees at Calcutta, to enable them to carry the said trust into execution.

A copy of the trust deed may be seen with the several persons hereinafter named, who are authorized by the said Trustees to adjust accounts with, and receive payment from such persons as are indebted to the said firm of Williams and Hohler.

The said Trustees beg leave to state, that since the said trust deed has been executed, both Mr. Williams and Mr. Hohler, died; the former leaving a widow and seven infant daughters, and the latter leaving a widow and three infant children, without any means of support whatsoever, other than the bounty of the public. From the fair character the deceased bore, the subscriptions in India have been as usual, liberal; but the amount still very inadequate for the purposes required.

The undermentioned gentlemen have kindly offered to receive and remit to India, any contributions the friends of the deceased may be willing to make for the benefit of their families.

In London, Messrs. Palmer, Wilson, and Co. No. 36, Old-Jewry; in Edinburgh, James Gibson, Esq. W. S.; in Ireland, Josiah Dunn, Solicitor at Dublin.
