CONVENTION for a Suspension of Hostilities with France. Signed at Paris, the 23d of April 1814.

In the Name of the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity.

THE Allied Powers, anxious to terminate the misfortunes of Europe, and to lay the foundation of its repose on a just division of power between the states of which it is composed; desirous of affording to France (now that she is reinstated under a Government whose principles offer the necessary guarantees for the maintenance of Peace) proofs of their disposition to place themselves in the relations of friendship with her; and wishing at the same time that France should enjoy the blessings of Peace as much as possible, even before the whole of their arrangements can be completed, have resolved to proceed, conjointly with His Royal Highness Monsieur, Son of France, Brother of the King, Lieutenant-General of the Kingdom of France, to a suspension of hostilities between their respective forces, and to the re-establishment of the relations of friendship which formerly subsisted between them.

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for himself and his Allies on the one part, and His Royal Highness Monsieur, Brother of the Most Christian King, Lieutenant-General of the Kingdom of France, on the other part, have, in consequence, named Plenipotentiaries to agree to an act, which, without prejudging the terms of Peace, contains stipulations for a suspension of hostilities, and which shall be succeeded, as soon as may be, by a Treaty of Peace; to wit:—His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Robert Stewart Viscount Cas-tlereagh, one of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, Colonel of the Londonderry Regiment of Militia, and His Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and His Royal Highness Monsieur, Brother of the King, Lieutenant-General of the Kingdom of France, le Sieur Charles Maurice de Talleyrand Perigord, Prince of Benevento, Grand Eagle of the Legion of Honour, Grand Cross of the Order of St. Stephen, of the Orders of St. Andrew, St. Alexander Newsky, and of St. Anne of Russia, of the Orders of the Black Eagle and the Red Eagle of Prussia, Senator and President of the Provisional Government; who, after the exchange of their full powers, have agreed to the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

All hostilities by land and sea are, and shall remain, suspended between the Allied Powers and France; that is to say, for the land forces, as soon as the Commanding Officers of the French armies and fortified places shall have signified to the allied troops opposed to them, that they have recognised the authority of the Lieutenant-General of the Kingdom of France; and in like manner upon the sea, as far as regards maritime places and stations, as soon as the shipping and ports of the kingdom of France, or those occupied by French forces, shall have manifested the same submission.

ARTICLE II.

For the purpose of effecting the re-establishment of the relations of friendship between the Allied Powers and France, and to afford to the latter beforehand, as much as possible, the enjoyment of the blessings of Peace, the Allied Powers will cause their armies to evacuate the French territory, as it existed on the 1st of January 1792, upon condition that the places still in the possession of the French armies beyond those limits, shall be evacuated and delivered up to the Allies.

ARTICLE III.

The Lieutenant-General of the Kingdom of France will accordingly instruct the Commandants
