

and effects therein mentioned, unto certain trustees, in the said will named, upon trust, to sell and dispose of the same respectively at their will and pleasure, and to call in and collect all such parts of the said testator's personal estates, as should consist of moneys or securities for money, and the money arising by and from all such sales and collections, in trust to pay and apply the same to, and to the use of all and every the children of the testator's late brother Abraham Morrillion, deceased, as should be found living at the testator's decease, in equal shares and proportions if more than one, and if only one, then the whole to the use of such only child, their respective executors or administrators, provided such child or children of the testator's brother, should identify themselves and be made known to the said trustees, within the space of seven years from the day of the testator's death; and for that purpose the said trustees were directed to advertise and make known the said will in the English and Foreign Gazette of London and Jamaica, and in such other newspapers as they should think proper, three times at the least in each and every year for the space of seven years next after the testator's death, and in case at the end of the said seven years by the means aforesaid, the children of his said brother Abraham, should not be found, or being found or heard of, should not either by themselves in person or by their attorney, duly authorised under his or their hand or hands and seals, apply or give notice in writing to the said trustees, for the distribution and payment of the said trust estates and effects, then the testator did direct the said trustees to apply the same to the use of certain other persons in the said will named, in the manner therein particularly set forth.

Now we William Scotchburn, of Crowle aforesaid, Timothy Richardson, of Luddington, in the said county of Lincoln, and Enoch Wilson Margrave, of Ealand, in the parish of Crowle aforesaid, the trustees and executors named in and appointed by the last will and testament, and a codicil thereto annexed of the said John Morrillion, deceased, do (in pursuance of the direction of the said will,) hereby give notice to all and every the child and children of the said Abraham Morrillion now living, and to the personal representatives of child, of any such child, who was living at the time of the said testator's death, and who by virtue of the aforesaid will, are become or claim to be entitled to the whole or any part of the said trust estates, late of their said uncle John Morrillion, of Crowle aforesaid, gent. deceased, of the contents of the said will, and he, she or they are hereby required to identify and make themselves known to us or one of us, or to our agents Messrs. Munzo, Bullock and Lynch, of Kingston, in the Island of Jamaica, Messrs. Exley, Stocker and Dawson, No. 4, Furnival's Inn, London, or George Capes, Esq. Solicitor, Epworth, near Thorne, Yorkshire, so soon as conveniently may be, in order that such child or children, or their descendants, relations or representatives, may respectively take the benefit of the said trust estates; and all such claimants are requested to produce and transmit to us, well-authenticated pedigrees and statements of their claims, and any person or persons who can give any information of the said children or family of the said Abraham Morrillion, are requested so to do, and any expenses incurred by them will be re-paid. Dated the 2d day of May 1814.

WM. SCOTCHBURN.
TIMOTHY RICHARDSON.
ENOCH W. MARGRAVE.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Branch, at the Dog Tavern, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, on Monday the 13th day of June next, between the hours of Three and Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, by order of and before the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against William Leaf, late of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman (Partner with John Leaf the younger, late of Manchester aforesaid, Merchant, but now in parts beyond the seas), subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced;

All that capital message or dwelling house being No. 1, of the Crescent, in Salford, in the said County of Lancaster, together with the stable and garden thereunto belonging, formerly in the occupation of the said William Leaf, but now of Mrs. Redhead, as tenant from year to year; and also all those two several chief reuts of 3l. 4s. 2d. and 2l. 4s. 8d. issuing and arising from land and buildings nearly adjoining the said premises, payable for the residue of a term of which 78 years or thereabouts are now unexpired. The message or dwelling house and stable are held for a term of which 78 years or thereabouts are now unexpired; and the garden is held for a term of years whereof 88 are now unexpired, and the said several premises are subject to 3 several yearly chief or ground rents, amounting together to the annual sum of 33l. 6s. 8d. The said dwellinghouse contains extensive cellars, and on the ground floor a spacious dining and drawing room, breakfast room, butler's pantry, and an excellent kitchen and back kitchen, in which is a pump, conveying water from a large terrace cistern in the yard, and in the first and second stories are eight good bed rooms, and one dressing room.

The premises are in excellent repair, and having the advantage of a large garden behind, are very open and airy both at the front and back, forming a desirable residence for a large respectable family.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Halstead and Ainsworth, Solicitors to the mortgagees, or to Mr. Culliff, Solicitor to the said Commission.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree and subsequent Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Binnington against Harwood, about the end of June or beginning of July 1814, before John Bingley, Gent. (the person appointed by Robert Steele, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court), at the House of Joshua Tingle, the Neptune Inn, in Rawcliffe, near Snaith, in four distinct lots;

A freehold and copyhold estate, situate at Snaith and Cowick, or one of them, in the West-Riding, of the County of York (late the property of Mrs. Catherine Binnington, deceased), consisting of a house, barn, stable, granary, garden, and fold yard adjoining, and three closes of land, containing together 27A. 3R. or thereabouts, part freehold and the remainder copyhold, now in the occupation of Mr. Francis Eadon or his undertenants.

The day of sale will be shortly advertised, when particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Building's, Chancery-Lane, London; at the Offices of Mr. Eadon, Solicitor, Selby, Yorkshire; Mr. Bingley, Solicitor, Rawcliffe; Messrs. Baxter and Martin, Furnival's-Inn; Messrs. Wright and Pickering, Tanfield-Court, Temple, London; and at the principal Inns, in Snaith and Rawcliffe aforesaid.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, in a cause wherein Gorge Brooks, Esq. is Plaintiff, and Westgarth Snaith, Esq. and others are Defendants, before Charles Thomson, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in the month of June or beginning of July next;

A capital and valuable freehold estate, mansion-house, offices, pleasure-grounds, &c. containing upwards of 430 acres, within a ring fence, in the County of Hertford, in lots, as will be hereafter described, being

The Shenley Hill estate, comprising 430A. of valuable land, forming a very desirable and important property, delightfully situated, within 3 miles of Saint Albans, 5 from Barnet, and about 16 from London, late in the possession of Charles Arnold, Esq. deceased. In the centre of a beautiful domain of park-like appearance, and upon a fine eminence is placed a most comfortable family residence, containing numerous rooms, planned for the accommodation of a respectable family, commanding extensive and beautiful prospects, over a rich cultivated country, intersected with parks and seats of noblemen and gentlemen. With the residence are attached offices, of every description, kitchen-gardens, green-house and grapery, pleasure grounds, and ornamental plantations, in clumps of evergreens and forest trees. At a convenient distance from the house is placed a farm house, with barns, stables and outbuildings; and attached to the lot comprising the mansion house, will be about 150 acres of prime meadow land.

The remainder of the estate is bounded by two roads, and will be sold in lots, to be more fully described in future advertisements and particulars.

May be viewed on application to Mr. Salmon, of Shenley, who will shew the premises. Printed particulars of the estate may be shortly had at the said Master's Chambers; of Messrs. Horne and Rogers, Solicitors, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; Messrs. Clayton and Scott, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn; Messrs. Farrer, Steadman and Uthoff, Nicholas-Lane, Lombard-Street; and Messrs.
