

MORRILLION'S ESTATE.

TO the child and children of Abraham Morrillion, deceased, formerly of Crowle, in the County of Lincoln, in the Kingdom of England, Mariner, who was brother of John Morrillion, late of Crowle aforesaid, gent. deceased, and to the personal representatives of any of such child or children who may be dead, and to his, her or their relatives.

Whereas the said John Morrillion, departed this life on the 1st day of February last past, and having by his last will and testament, dated the 12th day of March 1813, given and devised all his real estates at Crowle or elsewhere, in the Kingdom of England, except a certain messuage and homestead therein mentioned; and also the several personal estates and effects therein mentioned, unto certain trustees, in the said will named, upon trust, to sell and dispose of the same respectively at their will and pleasure, and to call in and collect all such parts of the said testator's personal estates, as should consist of moneys or securities for money, and the money arising by and from all such sales and collections, in trust to pay and apply the same to, and to the use of all and every the children of the testator's late brother Abraham Morrillion, deceased, as should be found living at the testator's decease, in equal shares and proportions if more than one, and if only one, then the whole to the use of such only child, their respective executors or administrators, provided such child or children of the testator's brother, should identify themselves and be made known to the said trustees, within the space of seven years from the day of the testator's death; and for that purpose the said trustees were directed to advertise and make known the said will in the English and Foreign Gazette of London and Jamaica, and in such other newspapers as they should think proper, three times at the least in each and every year for the space of seven years next after the testator's death, and in case at the end of the said seven years by the means aforesaid, the children of his said brother Abraham, should not be found, or being found or heard of, should not either by themselves in person or by their attorney, duly authorised under his or their hand or hands and seals, apply or give notice in writing to the said trustees, for the distribution and payment of the said trust estates and effects, then the testator did direct the said trustees to apply the same to the use of certain other persons in the said will named, in the manner therein particularly set forth.

Now we William Scotchburn, of Crowle aforesaid, Timothy Richardson, of Luddington, in the said county of Lincoln, and Enoch Wilson Margrave, of Ealand, in the parish of Crowle aforesaid, the trustees and executors named in and appointed by the last will and testament, and a codicil thereto annexed of the said John Morrillion, deceased, do (in pursuance of the direction of the said will,) hereby give notice to all and every the child and children of the said Abraham Morrillion now living, and to the personal representatives or child, of any such child, who was living at the time of the said testator's death, and who by virtue of the aforesaid will, are become or claim to be entitled to the whole or any part of the said trust estates, late of their said uncle John Morrillion, of Crowle aforesaid, gent. deceased, of the contents of the said will, and he, she or they are hereby required to identify and make themselves known to us or one of us, or to our agents Messrs. Munzo, Bullock and Lynch, of Kingston, in the Island of Jamaica, Messrs. Exley, Stocker and Dawson, No. 4, Farnival's Inn, London, or George Capes, Esq. Solicitor, Epworth, near Thorne, Yorkshire, so soon as conveniently may be, in order that such child or children, or their descendants, relations or representatives, may respectively take the benefit of the said trust estates; and all such claimants are requested to produce and transmit to us, well-authenticated pedigrees and statements of their claims, and any person or persons who can give any information of the said children or family of the said Abraham Morrillion, are requested so to do, and any expenses incurred by them will be re-paid. Dated the 2d day of May 1814.

WM. SCOTCHBURN.
TIMOTHY RICHARDSON.
ENOCH W. MARGRAVE.

Bombay Town-Hall, August 14, 1813.

Whereas in pursuance of an Act passed in the 37th and 40th years of His present Majesty's reign, chap. 79. sec. 21. letters ad colligenda bona to the estate and effects of John Taylor, late a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Honourable Company's Military Service on their Bombay Establishment, and who died at Poonah in the East Indies, in October 1808, was granted to the Register of the Recorder's Court of Bombay, bearing date the 20th day of December 1808, by virtue whereof he has collected divers assets belonging to the estate of the deceased, and a balance of rupees 40,535 1 52 remains to be administered, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.—And whereas by an order made by the said Court, on the Ecclesiastical side thereof, bearing date the 9th day of August instant, it was ordered that the Register should cause an advertisement to be published in one of the papers at each of the Presidencies in India, and also in the London Gazette, for the Creditors of the said John Taylor to come in before him and prove their debts; and it was further ordered, that the Creditors resident in India by such advertisement should be required so to do on or before the 1st day of March 1814, and those resident in Europe on or before the 1st day of September 1815, and in default of their coming in to prove their debts by the time so limited, they were to be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

The Creditors of the said John Taylor, resident in India, are therefore hereby required, on or before the 1st day of March 1814, and those resident in Europe on or before the 1st day of September 1815, to come in and prove their debts before the Register of the said Court of the Recorder of Bombay aforesaid, or in default thereof they will preemptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Order.
