COLONIAL DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, July 19, 1814.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, was this day received by Earl Bathurst from Lieutenant-General Sir George Prevost, dated Head-Quarters, Montreal, June 8, 1814.

IT is with regret I have to report to your Lordship, the unfortunate result of an enterprize made by the boats of the squadron on Lake Ontario, under the command of Captains Popham and Spilsbury, of the royal navy, with nearly two hundred seamen and marines, against a flotilla of the enemy's craft laden with naval stores from Oswego, at Sandy Creek, from whence the stores were to have been conveyed by land to Sackett's Harbour. A large boat, with two long twenty-four-pounders, and a nineteen and a half inch cable for the enemy's new ship, having been taken by our squadron then block-
