If Joseph Windsor, formerly of the City of Bristol, Currier, who removed from thence, as is supposed, to London about 25 years ago, and was brother to Thomas Windsor, formerly an Officer in His Majesty's Customs, Bristol, but late of the Parish of Saint Paul, in that City, Gentleman, deceased, be living, he must, within three calendar months, apply to Mr. G. P. Andrewes, Solicitor, Market-Gate, Bristol, to be entitled to considerable benefit under and by virtue of the will of the said Thomas Windsor, deceased, or be absolutely excluded therefrom; and if not living, any person or persons who will give information of the time and place of his decease shall be rewarded for their trouble, by application as above.

COUSINS OF WILLIAM FROST.

WILLIAM FROST (a native of Mayfield, in the County of Stafford, and for many years), of the Town of Nottingham, Farrier, by his will, bearing date the 20th of September 1781, gave real and personal estates to Trustees, to sell and divide the produce amongst his first cousins and cousinsgerman, so that a first cousin should receive double the sum of a cousin german (which has been construed to mean first and second cousins); and the Testator died on or about the 19th of October 1781; every person claiming as first and second cousins, or as the personal representative of any deceased first and second cousin of the Testator, are required personally or by their attorneys, to attend and deliver to Messrs. Jamson and Leeson, the Solicitors for the heir at law of the surviving Trustee, at the Greyhound Inn, in Cromford, in the County of Derby, on Tuesday the 30th day of August instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, pedigrees to shew their respective relationships to the Testator, with copies of Parish registers and other documents sufficient in law to support the same; also copies of Parish registers to shew the times of the respective deaths of any first or second cousins, who have died since the death of the Testator; and the probates of wills and letters of administration, which will legally authorise such representatives to receive a final dividend, and release the Trustee. And every person neglecting to comply with this will be excluded the benefit of a final dividend (which the Trustee wishes forthwith to make) of the money arising from the residue of the Testator's real estates.
