

field, having stated that she was going to a house at the other end of the village: and whereas the said Elizabeth Noyce lingered until Friday the 15th day of the same month of July, and then died, having during that period some short intervals of understanding, in the course of which she three times declared to a Magistrate, that she was knocked down by a violent blow in the back part of the head, which stunned her instantly; that she did not see the person who struck her, but that she heard him distinctly come out of Mr. Covey's field, over the gate, and walk behind her: and whereas there is no doubt but the said Elizabeth Noyce was barbarously and cruelly murdered, by being knocked down in the road, and afterwards dragged through the gateway and thrown down in the corner of the field where she was found; a stake of uncommon size being found near the gate the next morning.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the actual perpetrator of this wicked murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons concerned therein (except the person who actually committed the said murder), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Fawley to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and convict the said offenders, or any of them, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof; such reward to be paid on application to the said Churchwardens and Overseers, or either of them.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a turnpike road from the Sessions-House in the town of Buckingham, in the county of Buckingham, to join the turnpike road leading through the hamlet of Old Stratford, in the parish of Passenham, in the county of Northampton, and to continue the same from and out of the said last-mentioned turnpike road, at the North East side of the town of Stoney Stratford, in the said county of Buckingham, to and through the high street in the town of Newport Pagnell, in the said county of Buckingham; which said road is intended to pass through part of the parish of Buckingham, and through or into the several parishes and places of Maidsmorton and Foscott, in the said county of Buckingham; Wicken, Deanshanger, Passenham, and Old Stratford, in the said county of Northampton; and Stoney Stratford, Saint Mary Magdalene, Stoney Stratford Saint Giles, Calverton, Woolverton, Bradwell, Stantonbury, Great Sinford, and Newport Pagnell, in the said county of Buckingham.—Dated the 18th day of August 1814.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill to repeal five several Acts, one made in the tenth year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Ann, one other in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the First, one other in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, one other in the third and one other in the eighteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, for repairing the road from Highgate Gatehouse, in the county of Middlesex, to Barnet-Blockhouse, in the county of Hertford, and the road from the Bear Inn, in Hadley, to the Angel, in Enfield-Chase, and also Cane-Wood-Lane, leading from Highgate to Hampstead, in the said county of Middlesex, and the road beginning at Barnet-Blockhouse, and ending at the Bear Inn, in Hadley aforesaid, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof; which said roads pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Hornsey, Hampstead, Finchley, Friern, Barnet, Chipping Barnet, Hadley, and South Mims, and in which Bill it is intended to make provision for increasing the tolls now payable on the said roads.—Dated the 9th day of August 1814.

By order of the Trustees,
James Quilter, jun. Solicitor, 35, Castle-Street, Holborn.
