Whitehall, August 12, 1814

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Monday the 11th day of July last, between the hours of one and two o'clock, Elizabeth Noyce, late of the parish of Fawley, in the county of Southampton, widow, deceased, was found in a field of Mr. Covey's, in the said parish, but a very short distance from her own house, lying upon her side in a state of total insensibility, with her face covered with dirt, and her nostrils filled, apparently for the purpose of producing suffocation: and whereas about ten minutes after nine o'clock in the evening of Sunday the previous day, she was seen to go from her own house up the roadway which bounds Mr. Covey's field, having stated that she was going to a house at the other end of the village: and whereas the said Elizabeth Noyce lingered until Friday the 15th day of the same month of July, and then died, having during that period some short intervals of understanding, in the course of which she three times declared to a Magistrate, that she was knocked down by a violent blow in the back part of the head, which stunned her instantly; that she did not see the person who struck her, but that she heard him distinctly come out of Mr. Covey's field, over the gate, and walk behind her: and whereas there is no doubt but the said Elizabeth Noyce was barbarously and cruelly murdered, by being knocked down in the road, and afterwards dragged through the gateway and thrown down in the corner of the field where she was found; a stake of uncommon size being found near the gate the next morning.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the actual perpetrator of this wicked murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons concerned therein (except the person who actually committed the said murder), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SLEWORTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Fawley to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and convict the said offenders, or any of them, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof; such reward to be paid on application to the said Churchwardens and Overseers, or either of them.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a turnpike road from the Sessions-House in the town of Buckingham, in the county of Buckingham, to join the turnpike road leading through the hamlet of Old Stratford, in the parish of Passenham, in the county of Northampton, and to continue the same from and out of the said last-mentioned turnpike road, at the North East side of the town of Stoney Stratford, in the said county of Buckingham, to and through the high street in the town of Newport Pagnell, in the said county of Buckingham; which said road is intended to pass through part of the parish of Buckingham, and through or into the several parishes and places of Midsmorton and Foscott, in the said county of Buckingham; Wicken, Deanshanger, Passenham, and Old Stratford, in the said county of Northampton; and Stoney Stratford, Saint Mary Magdalene, Stoney Stratford Saint Giles, Calverton, Woolverton, Bradwell, Stantonbury, Great Linford, and Newport Pagnell, in the said county of Buckingham.—Dated the 18th day of August 1814.

Parish of Langham, in the County of Norfolk.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for an Act to divide and inclose the whole year lands, common, commonable lands and waste grounds, within the manor and parish of Langham, in the county of Norfolk.—Dated the 6th day of August 1814.
