August 20, 1814:

Notice to Creditors (if any). All persons having demands on the estate of the late Mary Thorpe, Spinster, of Edgware-Road, Parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex, who died in December last, are hereby directed to deliver in their accounts, within one month from this date, to Mr. Reina, 6, Great Newport-Street, Long-Acre; otherwise they will not be paid.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Aylesbury, July 23, 1814.

Pursuant to the terms of a deed of trust, under which a fund is provided for satisfying certain debts due from Messrs. James Neale, Thomas Grace, and John Saunders Woodcock, late of the Vale of Aylesbury Bank, prior to the dissolution of their Partnership, which took place on or about the 10th day of October 1810, all persons who are holders of promissory notes, or otherwise Creditors of the said James Neale, Thomas Grace, and John Saunders Woodcock, are required forthwith to deliver or send an account of their respective demands, with full particulars of the notes or other securities, if any, which they hold, to me, otherwise they will be excluded the benefit of the said trust.

JOSEPH ROSE, Solicitor to the Trustees.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued, and now in prosecution against John Shoel and James Heald, of Gateston-Street, London, Merchants, Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, at the Guildhall of the City of London, on Tuesday the 30th day of August 1814, at Ten o'Clock;

The valuable and desirable lease, whereof 28 years were unexpired at Lady-Day last, at a low rent of 42l. per annum, of that capital dwelling house and shop, well situated for business, being No. 52 on the West side of Houndsditch, in the City of London.—Immediate possession may be had.—The tenant is bound to insure the premises in the sum of 500l. and the fixtures to be taken at a fair valuation.

To be viewed six days prior to the sale: particulars had on the premises; at Garraway's; of Messrs. Mayhew and Price, Solicitors, Symond's-Inn; Mr. Barrow, Solicitor, Threadneedle-Street; and of Mr. Farebrother, Beaufort-House, Beaufort-Buildings, Strand.

IRON-WORKS AND COLLIERY FOR SALE.

TO be sold, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against John Thomas, at the Angel Inn, in the town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan, between the hours of Five and Seven o'Clock in the Afternoon, on Monday, the 5th day of September 1814;

Lot 1.—All those iron-works, situate in the Parish of Machen, in the County of Monmouth, called Pontymister Iron-Works, consisting of a rolling-mill, capable of turning out 40 tons of bar-iron per week, and an wooden helve hammer for drawing out uses, with carpenters' shops, smith forges, turning machines, store-houses, 18 workmens' houses, and other conveniences.

Also a substantial newly erected agent's house, with stabling, out-offices, gardens, and premises thereto belonging.

Also a piece of ground, adjoining the river Ebbw, containing by estimation 17 acres, or thereabouts; on part of which the above iron-works, and other buildings and premises, have been erected and made: and the whole of which is held under a lease granted by William Phillips, Esq. together with all his right to the said river, for a term whereof 27 years are unexpired from the 6th day of March last, subject to an yearly rent of 131l. 5s. and which lease contains a covenant for granting a further term of 40 years of the same premises, to commence from the expiration of the said lease, in payment of 520l. down, and the said yearly rent of 131l. 5s.

Also a piece of freehold land, situate in the Parish of Risca, in the Monmouth, only divided from the said 17 acres by the said river Ebbw.

The above iron-works are worked by water, of which they have a constant supply from the said river Ebbw, and are distant from the shipping port of Newport about 6 miles, and most eligibly situated, about three quarters of a mile from the Monmouthshire canal, and a tram-road leading from Sirhowy and Tradegar iron-works to Newport, with which tram-road they communicate by another tram road about three quarters of a mile in length.

Lot 2.—A valuable colliery, near Newbridge, in the Parish of Monythusjoin, in the said County of Monmouth, about 11 miles and three quarters from Newport aforesaid; containing coals of the best quality, adjoining Pangoes Colliery, and is the same vein.

The whole of this colliery is leasehold, and different parts of it granted for different periods, the longest term of which is 17 years from the 2d of June 1811, subject to the payment of certain gallages and rents; there is also three halfpence per ton to be paid for all coals brought out through the main level thereof.

The above colliery is now let to Mr. Moses Moses, under an agreement for a lease thereof for 7 years, from the 12th day of July 1813, at a clear rent of 200l. per annum, payable monthly by a bill at two months, over and above the said gallages, rents; and payments.

N. B. There are a variety of articles lying at the said iron-works too numerous to mention here, which will be extremely useful to a purchaser of those works, and may be taken by him at a valuation; a list of the whole of which may be seen on application to Mr. John Thomas, at the works.

For a view of the iron-works apply to Mr. John Thomas, of the works, and of the colliery, to Mr. Moses Moses, Argood Colliery, Bedwellty, Monmouthshire; and for further particulars to Mr. David Williams, Solicitor, Newport, Monmouthshire.—Newport, August 9, 1814.
