Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of an appointment from the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this colony, given upon a petition of William Innes, as appointed Curator to the estate of John Donaldson, deceased, dated 26th January 1814;

I the undersigned, at the request of aforesaid curator, do hereby summon by edict, all known and unknown creditors on the estate of the late John Donaldson, deceased, to appear before the bar of the Court of Civil Justice of this colony, at their session, which will be held in the month of October of this present year 1814, there to verify their claims and witness the Court's decision as to the preferent or concurrent right of claimants, and further to proceed according to law, on pain of being for ever debarred their right of claim.

This summons by edict made known to the public by beat of drum from the Court-House of this Colony, and further dealt with according to custom.—Berbice, the 15th February 1814. K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY virtue of two appointments from His Excellency R. Gordon, Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the colony Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. granted upon two petitions both presented by Johannes Bakker, as one of the representatives of plantation La Fraternite versus plantation Lewis Manor, the one appointment bearing date the 10th February 1812, and the other the 2d of March 1812, both appointments being renewed on the 24th April 1813.

Notice is hereby given, that I the undersigned First Marshal of the Courts within this colony, will sell at public execution sale, in the month of June 1815, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this colony, the cotton estate Lewis Manor, situate on the East sea coast of this colony, with all its cultivation, slaves, buildings, &c.

Whoever should think to have any right, action, or interest on aforesaid plantation Lewis Manor, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring their reasons for so doing, in due time and form, as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from everyone thereunto qualified, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act thereon as the law directs.

This first proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, the 29th May 1814. K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

From the Marshal's Office.

Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of an appointment from the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this colony, given upon a petition presented by William Lawson and William Kewley, curators to the estate of the late Gwyn Jones, said appointment bearing date the 21st day of May 1814;

I the undersigned, First Marshal of the Courts within this colony, and at the request of aforesaid curators, summon by edict de novo all creditors or claimants on the estate of the late Gwyn and Aletta Jones, to give in their claims in person, or by proxy, before the bar of the Court of Civil Justice, at their sessions, which will be held in the month of October 1814, to hear objections made thereunto; and further to proceed according to law, on pain, to all such who remain in default, of being for ever debarred their right of claim.

This summons by edict de novo made known to the public by beat of drum, from the Court-House of this colony, to be sent to Holland and England, and further dealt with according to custom.—Berbice, the 4th June 1814.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Bombay Town-Hall, August 14, 1813.

WHEREAS in pursuance of an Act passed in the 39th and 40th years of His present Majesty's reign, chap. 79. sec. 21. letters ad colligenda bona to the estate and effects of John Taylor, late a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Honourable Company's Military Service on their Bombay Establishment, and who died at Poona in the East Indies, in October 1808, was granted to the Register of the Recorder's Court of Bombay, bearing date the 20th day of December 1808, by virtue whereof he has collected divers assets belonging to the estate of the deceased, and a balance of rupees, 40,533 1 52 remains to be administered, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.—And whereas by an order made by the said Court, on the Ecclesiastical side thereof, bearing date the 9th day of August instant, it was ordered that the Register should cause an advertisement to be published in one of the papers at each of the Presidencies in India, and also in the London Gazette, for the Creditors of the said John Taylor to come in before him and prove their debts; and it was further ordered, that the Creditors resident in India by such advertisement should be required so to do on or before the 1st day of March 1814, and those resident in Europe on or before the 1st day of September 1815, and in default of their coming in to prove their debts by the time so limited, they were to be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

The Creditors of the said John Taylor, resident in India, are therefore hereby required, on or before the 1st day of March 1814, and those resident in Europe on or before the 1st day of September 1815, to come in and prove their debts before the Register of the said Court of the Recorder of Bombay aforesaid, or in default thereof they will preemptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Order.
