

Stifford, all in the county of Essex; and also for altering and increasing the several tolls, rates, and duties authorised to be levied by the said several Acts.—Dated this 13th day of September 1814.

Baker and Sons, Solicitors, Barking, Essex; Limehouse, Middlesex; or 5, Nicholas-Lane, Lombard-Street, London.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to divide, allot, and inclose, all the commons, waste lands, common fields, common meadows, and intermixed lands, lying in the parish of Dundry, in the county of Somerset.—Dated this 3d day of September 1814.

Thos. Day James, Solicitor.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is about to be made to Parliament in the ensuing sessions, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable certain persons to form themselves into a Company, for the purpose of accepting and taking a lease from the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of London, and the trustees of his Paddington estates, of certain waters and springs, and their conduits and appurtenances, in the several parishes of Maryle-Bone and Paddington, in the county of Middlesex, for better supplying the inhabitants of the cities of London and Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, with spring water, and enabling them to raise a sufficient sum of money for that purpose.

Wright and Pickering, Solicitors, Temple.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, by the Commissioners acting under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the thirty-fourth year of the present reign, intituled "An Act for paving and otherwise improving the town of Abergavenny, and the limits thereof, in the county of Monmouth," to enlarge, alter, and explain the powers of the said Act, and to enable the said Commissioners to raise money to pay off and discharge certain sums borrowed and expended in paving and improving the said town, and now remaining due, by increasing the present rates, and otherwise, and for other purposes.—Dated this 7th day of September 1814.

Baker Gabb and Son, Solicitors, Abergavenny.

Grosmont Railway.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-first year of the present reign, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the Brecknock and Abergavenny canal, in the parish of Llanwenarth, to or near to Llanvihangel Crucorney, in the county of Monmouth," certain persons therein named are united into a company, by the name of "The Llanvihangel Railway Company," and are thereby impowered and authorised to make a railway from the said Brecknock and Abergavenny canal to the village of Llanvihangel Crucorney, in the said county; and whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-second year of the present reign, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway from the end of the Llanvihangel railway, in the parish of Llanvihangel Crucorney, in the county of Monmouth, to or near to the twelfth mile-stone, in the road leading from the town of Abergavenny, in the county of Monmouth, to the city of Hereford," certain persons therein named are united into a company, by the name of "The Grosmont Railway Company," and are thereby authorised and impowered to make a railway from the end or termination of the said Llanvihangel railway, at or near the said village of Llanvihangel Crucorney, to the said twelfth mile stone; and whereas the said Llanvihangel Railway Company have terminated their road at or near a place or farm called Blaengavenny, in the said parish of Llanvihangel Crucorney, some distance from the said village of Llanvihangel Crucorney, notice is, therefore, hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for powers to enable the said Grosmont Railway Company to commence their railway at the termination of the said Llanvihangel railway, at or near Blaengavenny aforesaid, which said intended piece of railway will pass through the said parish of Llanvihangel Crucorney; and such other powers as will effectuate a junction of the said Grosmont railway with the said Llanvihangel railway.—Dated this 30th day of August, 1814.

Baker Gabb, jun. Solicitor to the said Grosmont Railway Company.
