

Portsea Island and Farlington Water-Works.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Company of Proprietors of the Portsea Island Water-Works to raise further sums of money, and to alter, vary, amend, explain, and enlarge the powers, and render more effectual two several Acts of Parliament, viz. an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to enable Thomas Smith, Esquire, Lord of the Manor of Farlington, in the county of Southampton, to supply the town of Portsmouth and parts adjacent with good and wholesome water, at his own costs and charges;" and also an Act passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for better supplying with water the borough of Portsmouth, and the parishes of Portsmouth and Portsea, and places adjacent, in the county of Southampton;" and for enabling the said Proprietors of the Portsea Island Water-Works and the assigns of the said Thomas Smith to unite their respective interests and concerns as proprietors of such respective water-works, for the better and more effectual supplying with water the borough of Portsmouth, and the parishes of Portsmouth and Portsea, and places adjacent, also the inhabitants of the several parishes of Widley, Wymmering, Bedhampton, Farlington, Havant, and Warblington, all in the said county, and also all such parts in the said parishes as are not included within the limits mentioned in the said recited Acts.—Dated this 3d day of September, in the year of our Lord 1814.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for paving, lighting, watering, watching, and otherwise improving certain parts of the Parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, called Kentish Town, Mansfield-Place, and Spring-Place, and certain roads or ways leading to and from the same respectively; and for preventing nuisances and obstructions therein, and adjoining thereto.

Denton and Barker, 15, Gray's-Inn-Square.

Notice is hereby given, to all persons whom it may concern, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing sessions of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill, for making and maintaining a navigable canal or cut, from a certain piece of waste water, situate near Cambridge-Street, Hackney-Road, in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, into the River Lea, or communication thereof, in the parish of Saint Mary, Stratford-le-Bow, uniting other pieces of waste water in the said intended cut, forming basons therein, for the more effectual water communication with the north east part of the metropolis, with collateral accommodation roads from the said bason near Cambridge-Street, to Hackney and Dalston-Lane, and that such navigable canal or cut, and the said intended works will pass through, and are situate in the parishes of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch; Saint Matthew, Bethnal Green; Saint John, Hackney;

and Saint Mary, Stratford-le-Bow; being all and severally in the county of Middlesex.

Denton and Barker, 15, Gray's-Inn-Square.

Navy-Pay-Office, September 23, 1814.

54 George 3, Chap. 93.

Notice is hereby given, that by the 35th section of the above Act, every Prize Agent or person authorised and empowered to receive and distribute any bounty monies or other monies, shall, within ten days after he shall have rendered to the Treasurer of Greenwich-Hospital, or his Deputy, and verified his statement and account of the proceeds and distribution of any prize or prizes, bounty or other monies as aforesaid, deliver or transmit to the Treasurer or Paymaster of His Majesty's Navy a copy of such statement and account, under a penalty of five hundred pounds; to which enactment all persons concerned, are desired to pay attention.

John Smith.

Navy Pay-Office, September 24, 1814.

Resignation of a Navy Agent's Licence.

John Smith, Paymaster.

Whitchall, September 27, 1814.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid.
