Notice to the Creditors of George Millar, Shtp-Owner, in Kinardine.

Leith, November 17, 1814.

AT a meeting of the creditors of the said George Millar, held within the Exchange Coffee-House, Leith, upon Tuesday the 15th current, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, an offer was made for payment of a composition of eight shillings in the pound on the debts due by the said George Millar, as they stood at the period of the sequestration of his estate, payable at the terms of Candlemas and Whitsunday 1815, by equal instalments; for payment of which composition Alexander Morrison, Leather-Merchant, in Stirling, was named as Cautioner, and a letter from Mr. Morrison, agreeing to become security as above, having been produced to the meeting, it was considered to be for the benefit of the creditors to accept of the said offer. Another meeting was afterwards appointed to be held within the said Coffee-House, on Friday the 9th day of December next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of finally deciding on the said offer; of which notice is hereby given, in terms of the statute.

JAMES C. MUIR, Merchant, in Edinburgh, hereby intimates his appointment as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of John Bartley, Smith, in Edinburgh, and that the Sheriff of Edinburgh has appointed Thursday the 1st and Thursday the 15th of December next, for the public examination of the Bankrupt, and others, in the Sheriff Clerk's Office, Edinburgh, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon on each day.—The Trustee likewise intimates a meeting of the whole creditors on Friday the 16th of December next, to choose Commissioners, claims and oaths of verity to be previously lodged; certifying that if said claims and oaths are not lodged betwixt and the 15th of August next, no share of the Bankrupt's funds will be given to those who shall neglect to lodge claims, all in terms of the Act.

Notice to the Creditors of Francis Garbet and Co. late Merchants, at Carron-Wharf, and Charles Gascoigne, one of the Partners of that Company, as an Individual.

Edinburgh, November 14, 1814.

WILLIAM HENDERSON, Secretary to the British Linen Company, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Francis Garbet and Co. and Charles Gascoigne, hereby gives notice, that he has made up a state of the Bankrupt funds and affairs to the 10th instant, which will lie open at his house for the inspection of the creditors or their agents till Tuesday the 10th day of January next, when the creditors are requested to meet within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, in order to give such directions to the Trustee as shall appear necessary for the future management of the estate.

The Trustee's accounts have been audited in terms of the statute.—No dividend can be made at present.

Notice to the Creditors of James M' Math, in Lagg.

Dumfries, November 15, 1814.

JAMES SMITH, of Jerburgh, Trustee on the said James M' Math's sequestrated estate, hereby intimates to the said creditors, that a general meeting is to be held on Tuesday the 29th of November current, within Mrs. Grieve's Coffee-House, in Dumfries, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of instructing the Trustee as to the management and recovery of the Bankrupt's funds; appointing Commissioners for the purpose of auditing the Trustee's accounts, settling his Commission, and other matters specified in the Act of Parliament.

Notice to the Creditors of Hugh Cross and Co. Merchants and Manufacturers, in Glasgow, and Hugh Cross as an individual Partner of that House.

Glasgow, November 16, 1814.

THE Trustee's accounts having been audited by the Commissioners, in terms of the statute, they will lie with Buchanan and Carrick, Accountants, in Glasgow, for the inspection of all concerned till the 15th December next, and on the following day dividends will be paid to those who have lodged affidavits, upon production of their vouchers.

INTIMATION.

THAT Walter Berry, formerly Bookseller and Stationer, now Agent, in Edinburgh, whose estate was sequestrated in 1797, and the Commissioners on his sequestrated estate have applied to the Court of Session to fix a time within which the whole proceedings in the sequestration shall be finally closed; which application the Court appointed to be intimated in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes; with certification that after the lapse of twenty days from the date of this intimation, the Court will fix such time accordingly.
