By Command of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Notice is hereby given, that, by an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of the several ports, harbours, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers, in the United Kingdom; and of His Majesty's docks, dock-yards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores therein; and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose," it is enacted,

Sect. 11.—That, if the owner, master, or other person having the charge or command of any private ship of war, transport, or other private merchant ship, or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft whatsoever; or any person working any quarry, mine, or pit, near to the sea, or to any such harbour, haven, or navigable river, or any other person or persons whatsoever, shall cast, throw, empty, or unlade, or cause or procure to be cast, thrown, emptied, or unladen, either from or out of any such ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft; or from the shore any ballast, stone, slate, gravel, earth, rubbish, wreck, or filth, into any of such ports, roads, roadsteads, harbours, havens, or navigable rivers of this kingdom; (so as to tend to the injury or obstruction of the navigation thereof, or in any place, or situation on shore, where the same shall be liable to be washed into the sea, or into any such ports, roads, roadsteads, harbours, havens, or navigable rivers; every person so offending, shall forfeit and pay, a sum not exceeding ten pounds, besides all expences, to be incurred in removing to a proper place, what may have been so deposited contrary to the Act.

And this penalty and expences are, by the 21st section of the Act, declared to be recoverable before a Commissioner of His Majesty's Navy, or a Justice of the Peace, who are empowered, on nonpayment thereof, to commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction for three months; and, by the same section, one moiety of the penalty is directed to be paid to the person giving information of the offence.
