NOTICE.

EDMUND WATERS, of Circus Street, New-Road, Mary-le-bone, London, Merchant, having returned from the Continent, and resumed the management of his business, begs to inform his correspondents, that in consequence thereof, the power of attorney authorising Mr. John Bromley, his clerk, to act during his absence, is hereby revoked; and that from this date all orders for goods of any description, and bills for acceptance, must be attested by Mr. Waters, as heretofore.—Given under my hand, in London, this 26th day of Nov. 1814.

E. Waters.

The Estate of WILLIAM BAYLIS the Elder, deceased.

ALL persons who have any claim or demand on the estate and effects of William Baylis the elder, formerly of Red Lyon-Street, Holborn, Tin-Plate-Worker, and late of Queen's-Buildings, Knightsbridge, in the Parish of Kensington, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased, are requested immediately to send the amount and particulars thereof, and the nature of the securities they hold, if any, to Mr. Humphrey Fifield, of Paradise-Row, Chelsea, Middlesex, Tin-Plate-Worker, the acting Executor to the said William Baylis, in order to their being examined and discharged; and all persons standing indebted to his estate are requested forthwith to pay the same to the said Humphrey Fifield.

IF the heir at law and next of kin of William Rissoan, late of the Salt-Office, London, Gentleman, son of Samuel Rissoan, of the Parish of Saint Luke, Chelsea, Apothecary, (who died in Sloane-Street in the beginning of 1800,) will apply to Messrs. Palmer and France, Solicitors, Bedford-Row, and make good their claim, they will be entitled to a freehold and personal estate.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUIBO.

THE undersigned, in his capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises by these presents, for the first, second, and third times, that he will, by virtue of a sentence of said Court, and the subsequent execution, expose and sell, at public execution sale, in the month of June 1815, the cotton and coffee plantations Turkeyen and Henrietta, with all the buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, situated on the east coast of Demerary, in behalf of P. F. Tinne, plaintiff, versus S. Cramer, surviving and acting executor, to the last will and testament of M. Tinne, deceased.

The inventory of the above-named plantations Turkeyen and Henrietta, is daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Rougemont and Behrends, in London.

The judicium of the pro and concurrence on the nett proceeds of the sale of said cotton and coffee plantations Turkeyen and Henrietta, will be held by the Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale.

For which reason, all those that may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the nett proceeds of said plantations, or otherwise, are herewith, by me the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said Court of Justice, summoned to appear, in person or by their attorney, on the first day appointed for hearing, which will be holden here in the month of August 1815, in order to lay their claim in due form, under the penalty that against the non-appearance will be proceeded in as the law directs.—Rio Demerary and Essequibo, this 18th day of June 1814.

A. M. MEERTENS, Deputy First Marshal.

BERBICE.

From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY virtue of an appointment from His Excellency the Governor, under date of 21st September 1814, given upon a petition presented by J. H. L. Manrenhecher, as the attorney of Rougemont and Behrends, of London;

Notice is hereby given to the public; that I the undersigned, intend to sell, at public execution sale, and in the presence of two Councillors Commissaries and their Secretary, in the month of November 1815, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this colony, the coffee estate called Vriendschap, situate in the middle river of this colony, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances thereto belonging, and of which an inventory is to be seen at this Office; said plantation being the property of George Pauels.

Whoever should think to have any right, action, or interest in the aforesaid estate Vriendschap, and wishes to oppose the execution sale thereof, let such persons address themselves to the undersigned, in writing, and in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every intermediate person, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act thereon as the law directs.

This first proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, the 25th September 1814.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.
