MICHAEL BENEDETTI, ENGRAVER.

Whereas several copper plate engravings and other effects belonging to the above named person, were left in the care of J. F. Rogaud, Esq. of London, in the year 1796, and whereas the said J. F. Rogaud, died in the year 1810, and the said effects remained in his hands at his death, and have since remained in the hands of his Administrator this is to give notice, that the said Administrator will dispose of the same by public auction, unless claimed by the said Michael Benedetti, or his lawful representatives, before the 1st of February 1814. Claims (if any) respecting the same, to be made to Brooks, Lefroy, and Crane, Solicitors to the Administrator, John-Street, Bedford-Road.

JOSEPH BATCHELOR.

If Joseph Batchelor, who was born at Westbury, in the County of Wilts, in the year 1797, and in or about the year 1811, set as apprentice to Mr. Starkey, Silversmith, 28, North-Square, Finsbury-Square, London, but who was missing on the 30th of July 1812, and has not since been heard of, be living, and will apply to Messrs. Davies and Davis, Attorneys, Westminster, Wilts, he will hear of something greatly to his advantage.—And any information respecting the death of the said Joseph Batchelor (should he be dead), will be thankfully received, as he is, if living, entitled to considerable property, which in case of his death is to be disposed of.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUIBO.

THE undersigned, in his capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequebo, advertises by these presents for the first, second, and third times, that he will, by virtue of a sentence of said Court, and the subsequent execution, expose and sell, at public execution sale, in the month of June 1815, the cotton and coffee plantations Turkeyen and Henrietta, with all the buildings, slaves; and further appurtenances, situated on the east coast of Demerary, in behalf of P. F. Thine, plaintiff, versus S. Crauer, surviving and acting executor to the last will and testament of M. Timme, deceased.

The inventory of the above-named plantations Turkeyen and Henrietta, is daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Rensselaer and Behrends, in London.

The judgment of the said Court and concurrence on the nett proceeds of the sale of said cotton and coffee plantations Turkeyen and Henrietta, will be held by the Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale.

For which reason, all those that may pretend to have any right, title, or interest in the nett proceeds of said plantations, or otherwise, are hereby, by me the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said Court of Justice, summoned to appear in person or by their attorney, on the first day appointed for hearing, which will be holden here in the month of August 1815, in order to lay their claim in due form, under the penalty that against the non-appearance will be proceeded in as the law directs.—Rid Demerary and Essequebo, this 18th day of June 1814.
