HERTFORDSHIRE.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree and subsequent Order of the High Court of Chancery, in a Cause wherein George Brooks, Esq. is Plaintiff, and Westgarth Snaith, Esq. and others are Defendants, by Charles Lancelot Hoggart, the person appointed for that purpose by Charles Thouson, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Auction Mart, on the 13th day of January 1815, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon;

A capital and valuable freehold estate mansion house, offices, pleasure grounds, &c. containing about four hundred and twenty acres of valuable land, within a ring fence, in the County of Hertford; in lots, to be described in the printed particulars of sale, being the Shenley Hill estate, and forming a most desirable property, delightfully situated within thirteen miles of Saint Albans, five from Barnet, and about sixteen from London, late in the possession of Charles Arnold, Esq. deceased, in the centre of a beautiful domain of park-like appearance, and upon a fine eminence is placed a comfortable family residence, containing numerous rooms planned for the accommodation of a respectable family, commanding extensive and beautiful prospects, over a well cultivated country, intersected with parks and seats of noblemen and gentlemen. With the residence are attached offices of every description, kitchen-gardens, green house, and grapery, pleasure grounds, and ornamental plantations in clumps of evergreens and forest trees. At a convenient distance from the house is placed a farm house, with barn, stables, and outbuildings; attached to the lot comprising the mansion house, will be about one hundred and eighty acres of prime meadow land.

May be viewed on application to Mr. Salmon, of Shenley, who will shew the premises: printed particulars of the estate with a map annexed, may be had at the said Master's Chambers; of Messrs. Home and Rogers, Solicitors, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; Messrs. Farrer, Steadman, and Uthoff, Nicholas-Lane, Lombard-Street; Messrs. Clayton and Scott, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn; and Messrs. Clamtree and Bicknell, Bloomsbury-Square; of the said Mr. Salmon; at the White Hart, St. Albans; Salisbury Arms, Hatfield; Swan, Rick's mansworth; Essex Arms, Watford; Bell, Hertford; Bull, Ware; Red Lion, Barnet; and of Messrs. Hoggart and Phillips, Old Broad-Street, London.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Barker against Lea, the Creditors and Legatees of Samuel Bousfield, late of the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surrey, Woollen-Draper, deceased, (who died on or about the 19th day of October 1811), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts, and claim their legacies, before John Campbell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Cole against Dacre, the Creditors, Legatees, and Annuitants of Augusta Bludworth, late of the Holt, in the County of Southampton, widow, deceased (who died on or about the 24th of January 1803), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts, and claim their legacies and annuities, before John Campbell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 23d day of June 1814, made in a Cause wherein John Thomas and others are plaintiffs, and Stephen Hart and others are defendants, all persons having any claims or demands upon the late Copartnership of Maurice Hart, Alexander Cohen, and Co late of London, Merchants, (to which Phineas De Baruch Toledano, the Bankrupt, one of the copartners,) would have been liable, which
