

Whitehall, January 27, 1815.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Morgan Rodolph Deere, of Cowbridge, in the county of Glamorgan, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, January 27, 1815.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed James Lampard, of Winchester, in the county of Hants, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, January 28, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about six of the clock in the evening of Saturday the 7th instant, as Mr. Richard West, of Sydenham-Common, was walking in his garden, a pistol was fired at him; the ball of which passed very near his head, and the person firing exclaimed "That's for the house searcher." Mr. West immediately ran towards the spot, when a second pistol was fired at him: the words above stated to have been uttered by the person firing, being in illusion to Mr. West's having taken out warrants for the purpose of searching the houses of certain persons who were suspected of having forcibly entered his cottage at Sydenham aforesaid, and stripped it of nearly all the moveable property which it contained (excepting the furniture).

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired such gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Richard West, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.
