

part of the world south of the Equator; and one hundred and twenty days for all other parts of the world without exception: And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged on the seventeenth day of last month, from which day the several terms abovementioned of twelve days, thirty days, forty days, sixty days, ninety days, and one hundred and twenty days, are to be computed; now, in order that the several epochs fixed as aforesaid, between His Majesty and the said United States, should be generally known and observed, We have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to notify the same to His Majesty's loving subjects; and We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, strictly charge and command all His Majesty's Officers both at sea and land, and all other His Majesty's subjects whatsoever, that they forbear all acts of hostility, either by sea or land, against the United States of America, or the citizens thereof, under the penalty of incurring His Majesty's highest displeasure.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the seventeenth day of March, in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of March 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the embargo laid, by Order in Council of the thirty-first of July one thousand eight hundred and twelve, upon all British ships and vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, or vessels belonging to the citizens of the United States, clearing out from the ports of the United Kingdom for any of the territories of the United States of America, be taken off: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The loyal Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Heritors, Justices of Peace, and Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Inverness, in a General Meeting assembled, held at Inverness the twenty-ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of Peace, and Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Inverness, humbly approach your Royal Highness, with the expression of our sentiments, on the present most unexpected posture of public affairs.

We see the whole Christian world, once more, on the eve of an arduous struggle, for their rights, their independence, their very existence as nations; and we acknowledge the lamentable imperfection of human views, when we reflect that the doom of millions may be found in that misplaced clemency to one remorseless being, which the best feelings of our nature hailed with approbation.

Far would it be from our wish to interfere with the liberties of any nation, or to oppose, or dictate the choice of their Governor, or form of Government: but we do not hesitate to wish, that, in self-defence, the nations through whose capitals the tyrant usurper of France has already strode, should on that experience, except him from all power of rule, not for the evil he may cause to France, but for that which he has done and would do to the world.

We observe with sorrow and apprehension that total dereliction of all principle, to which alone can be attributed the unresisted return of the tyrant to the throne of France; and we bless God that he hath averted from our own country that tremendous moral revolution, which has stained a civilized people with the worst vices and passions of barbarians.

Convinced, as we are, that every thing that human wisdom could direct has been done by your Royal Highness and your illustrious Allies to secure to wearied Europe the blessings of tranquillity and peace, we view the altered scene with regret, but not with fear; and despising that pernicious sophistry which, by an affected forbearance, would compromise the highest interests of humanity, we prepare again for the struggle, and join the shout of nations—"Death to the tyrant!—Peace to human kind!"

May it please your Royal Highness to accept the humble assurance of our devoted attachment to your Royal Highness's most illustrious House and Person.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the meeting, by William Fraser Tytler, Sheriff and Vice Lieutenant of Inverness-shire, Preses.

[Transmitted by Charles Grant, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Whitehall, April 11, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, taking into His royal consideration the highly distinguished zeal, signal intrepidity, and able conduct of the Right Honourable Stapleton Bacon Combermere, Knight, Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-