

of his meritorious services in the Government of Helligoland.

Captain Robert Mends, R. N. on obtaining permission to wear the Order of Charles the Third of Spain.

Whitehall, May 18, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Major-General Sir George Townshend Walker, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal has thought fit to honour him, in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the great courage and intrepidity displayed by the said Major-General, in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula :

And His Royal Highness is further pleased to command, that this His Majesty's concession and especial mark of the royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in His College of Arms.

War-Office, May 27, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to approve of the undermentioned regiments being permitted to bear on their colours and appointments, in addition to any other badges or devices, which have been heretofore permitted to be borne by those regiments, the word "Niagara," in consequence of the distinguished conduct of those corps in the capture of fort Niagara, by assault, on the 19th December 1813, and in the battle at Lundy's-Lane, in North America, on the 25th July 1814.
