

preferment; and also the poor people of Clowerwall, in the parish of Newland, in the county of Gloucester, to whom an annuity or yearly rent of twelve pounds is to be distributed and divided half yearly by the Churchwardens of the said parish of Newland, for the time being, with consent of the preacher of the said parish; and also the poor people of the parish of Burnett, in the county of Somerset, to whom the yearly sum of twenty shillings is to be paid and distributed by the Minister or Incumbent and Churchwardens thereof, for the time being; and also the Schoolmaster of the Free School of Newland aforesaid (he being an honest and learned scholar, and endeavouring to set forward poor children in their learning), to which said Schoolmaster an annuity or yearly rent of ten pounds is to be paid to and for his maintenance, and the increase of his stipend; and also the feoffees of the lands and tenements belonging to the parish church of Saint Nicholas, Bristol, to whom an annuity or yearly rent of three pounds is to be paid, to the intent and purpose that forty shillings thereof yearly shall be employed to and for the maintenance and reparation of the said parish church, and the other twenty shillings to be yearly given to two honest and learned preachers (to be nominated by the Mayor of the city of Bristol, for the time being), who shall yearly preach two several sermons in the said parish before the Mayor and Aldermen of the said city, one on the Feast Day of Saint Simon and Saint Jude, and the other on the seventh day of November; and also ten poor old and impotent sailors or mariners, who may be placed and reside in the Merchants-Hospital or Almshouse within the said city of Bristol, to whom ten shillings are to be weekly paid and distributed; and also two poor mens sons of the said city of Bristol that have first had their education and bringing up in the Free Grammar School of the said city, commonly called the Bartholomews, to each of whom ten pounds per annum are to be paid for and towards their maintenance in the University of Oxford or Cambridge; and also poor householders within the said city of Bristol that have wives and children or charge of family, and shall be certified to the Mayor and Aldermen, for the time being, by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the poor of the several parishes wherein they dwell, that they are fallen into decay, to whom forty shillings are to be weekly paid (that is to say), to each of them twenty shillings, provided that no householder shall have this alms or allowance more than once in any one year; and also fifty-two poor widows of honest life and conversation, within the said city, to one of whom ten shillings are to be paid weekly and every week, and no widow to have that allowance above once in any one year.

Geo. Merrick, Deputy Clerk of the Peace for the City of Bristol.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
April 19, 1815.

THREE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that at Salters-Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 25th day of October next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undernamed farms will be let on leases, to commence upon the 12th day of May 1816, and for the terms of years hereinafter respectively mentioned, that is to say, Glororum Farm, Colliery, and Limestone Quarry; Spindleston Farm, Spindleston and Waren Mills and Ground; Outchester and Chesterhill Farms, in the parish of Balmbrough and county of Northumberland, for the term of twenty-one years: Plankey Mill and Ground, in the parishes of Haltwhistle and Warden, in the said county, for the term of eleven years; and Tarrethurn Common Allotment, in the parish of Bellingham, in the said county, for the term of seventeen years, from the said 12th day of May 1816.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking any of the said farms, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Tuesday the 24th day of October next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day, will be returned as inadmissible.

Such alterations and additional buildings as may be thought essentially necessary by the receivers, and approved by the Directors of Greenwich-Hospital, will be made as soon as conveniently can be after the commencement of the terms, the respective tenants being at the expence of leading all materials.

In the present and all future lettings by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich-Hospital, the tenants will be required to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. John Dinning, of Newlands, near Belfont, will shew the farms in the parish of Balmbrough; Mr. William Coats, of Haydon-Bridge, will shew Plankey Mill and Ground; and Mr. Joseph Storey, of Wark, will shew Tarrethurn Common Allotment.

Messrs. Forster and Wailes, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which may be required.

CONTRACT FOR WASHING CANVAS.

Navy-Office, May 29, 1815.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 7th of June next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Taking Canvas from His Majesty's Yards at Deptford and Woolwich, and for washing and cleansing the same, and returning it back into Store at the said Yards when washed and cleansed.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any notices, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 3000*l.* for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.
