

Foreign-Office, June 6, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint the Honourable Charles Bagot to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States of America.

Whitehall, June 6, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to present the Reverend Hugh Wyane Jones, Bachelor of Arts, to the rectory of Aberffraw, in the county of Anglesea and diocese of Bangor, void by the death of the Reverend Evan Lloyd.

Whitehall, May 23, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Thomas Blackborne Thoroton of Flintham, in the county of Nottingham, Esq. who hath intermarried with Catherine Whyte, spinster, niece and sole heir of Sir Robert D'Arcy Hildyard, late of Winestead, in the east riding, and of Sedbury, in the north riding of the county of York, Bart. deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue by his said wife may, in compliance with the last will and testament of the said Sir Robert D'Arcy Hildyard, take and use the surname of Hildyard only, and quarter the arms of Hildyard, as used by the said testator, with his own family arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 26, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Robert Whyte, of Beckington Cottage, in the county of Devon, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may take and use the surname and arms of Moyser only, in compliance with the last will and testament of Sarah Moyser, late of Harley-street, in the parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, spinster, deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 6, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent being desirous of conferring upon John Cameron, Esq.

Colonel in the Army, Lieutenant-Colonel of the 92d (Highland) Regiment of Foot, and Knight of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, such a mark of His Majesty's royal favour, as may in an especial manner evince the sense he entertains of the highly distinguished services of that Officer upon divers important occasions, and more especially during the recent glorious and ever-memorable campaigns in Portugal, Spain, and France, and particularly the signal intrepidity displayed by him in the action of Arroya de Mouline; in the defence of the Pass of Maya; in the brilliant action near Bayonne; in crossing the River Gave de Mouline at Arriverete; and in compelling a very superior force of the enemy to abandon the town of Aire, hath been pleased to grant unto the said Colonel Cameron His Majesty's royal licence and authority that he and his descendants may bear the following crest of honourable augmentation, viz. "On a wreath, a Highlander of the 92d regiment, armed and accoutred, up to the middle in water, grasping in his dexter hand a broad sword, and in his sinister a banner inscribed 92d, within a wreath of laurel;" and in an escrol above "Arriverete," in allusion to the signal bravery displayed by him in forcing a passage through the River Gave de Mouline, in face of a very superior body of the enemy; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the respective royal concessions and declarations be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.
