And We do further declare, that this Our Proclamation shall not extend to require any Alien to obtain such licence as aforesaid, who shall have obtained, under any former Act relating to Aliens, His Majesty's Royal licence to reside in any part of this kingdom.

And We do further direct, That every Alien who shall have obtained any licence under any former Act, the term of which licence has expired, shall transmit the same to the Alien office in Crown-street, Westminster, for the purpose of being renewed or exchanged for such other licence as may be granted by our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or by such other person or persons appointed by us to grant the same.

TO OFFICERS OF THE LAND FORCES.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, having taken into consideration the great convenience that would result to Officers on the Half-Pay, or on the Retired List, and to General Officers, entitled to the pay of their army rank, if they were allowed to receive their pay or half-pay from the establishment of that country in which they shall actually reside, without regard to the establishment upon which the pay or half-pay was originally allowed, has been pleased to direct, that in future all such Officers shall, from the 25th December 1814, inclusive, or from such subsequent date to which their pay or half-pay shall have been issued, receive payment of the same in the country in which they shall reside; and that the following rules be observed in this respect:

Any Officer residing in Great Britain, whose pay or half-pay is now issued in Ireland, should notify his place of residence to the War-Office in Dublin, in order that an official communication may be made from thence, for the transfer of the payment of his pay or half-pay in Great Britain.

In like manner any Officer residing in Ireland, whose pay or half-pay is now issued in Great Britain, should make a similar report to the War-Office in London, when instructions will be given for the payment of his pay or half-pay in Ireland.

If any Officer should afterwards be desirous of changing his place of residence, he is to give two months previous notice of his intention to the War-Office of the country in which he shall then be resident.

PROCLAMATION

PARDONING DESERTERS

FROM

HIS MAJESTY'S REGULAR LAND FORCES.

War-Office, May 20, 1815.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that there are, at this time, several deserters from the different regular corps in His Majesty's land service, who might be induced to return to their duty, by an offer of His Royal Highness's gracious pardon, and, that such an instance of His Royal Highness's clemency might have a due influence upon their future behaviour; His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant His free pardon to all deserters from His Majesty's regular land forces, who, not having been previously apprehended, shall surrender themselves on or before the 20th day of July next, to the Commanding Officer of any regiment, or to any of the Inspecting Field-Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose stations are mentioned in the margin hereof,

Leeds.

Aylesbury.

Chelmsford.

Taunton.

Andover.

Edinburgh.

Glasgow.

or, to the Commandant of Albany Barracks in the Isle of Wight, or, to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Great Britain.

Such deserters, if able-bodied men, and fit for service, shall be sent to the regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such regiments in the United Kingdom as

His Royal Highness may be pleased to command; and when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other corps, to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said deserters may have enlisted into other regular corps, and are now serving therein, His Royal Highness is graciously pleased to extend to such deserters the benefit of this pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the corps wherein they now are, upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers on or before the said 20th day of July next, and, after having so declared themselves, they shall not be liable, at any future time, to be claimed by the regiments from which they had formerly deserted.

The Magistrate, to whom any deserter from His Majesty's regular forces shall surrender himself, is authorised and required to certify the day on which such deserter surrendered; which certificate is to be delivered to the deserter, to continue in force until the arrival of the deserter at the head-quarters of the nearest military post, provided he proceed at the rate of ten miles a day, unless prevented by sickness, such sickness to be certified by some medical practitioner, on the back of the Magistrate's certificate, or, to be otherwise proved, to the satisfaction of the Officer commanding at such military post.

And His Royal Highness having further commanded, that the greatest exertions shall be used, for the future apprehension of all deserters, every soldier now serving ought to be deeply impressed with a sense of the danger to which he will expose himself, if he should be guilty of the crime of desertion; and all those, who have already committed that offence, ought to feel, that they will render themselves liable to the severest punishment if they do not immediately avail themselves of the pardon held out in this Royal Highness's most gracious Proclamation.

Any soldier who may desert after these His Royal Highness's gracious intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost severity.

By the command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, PALMERSTON.

as shall be prescribed by the General Officer commanding His Majesty's forces in that country.

His Royal Highness is at the same time graciously pleased to declare, that the said private men who, upon examination, shall be found fit for service, shall receive the sum of one shilling and ten pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes until their arrival at the examining station, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march, and be afterwards subsisted until allotted to a veteran battalion, at the rate of one shilling per diem for pay, one penny per diem for beer money, and one penny per diem in lieu of the extra price of bread and meat.

His Royal Highness is also pleased to order, that every man found fit for duty shall, on his joining the veteran battalion to which he shall be appointed, receive a bounty of one pound five shillings, or so much thereof as shall remain after supplying him with proper necessaries; and it is His Royal Highness's gracious intention, that every such man whose pension is now less than nine-pence per diem, shall be entitled, when discharged, to that increased rate of out-pension, provided he be recommended by his Colonel or Commanding Officer as an object deserving of His Majesty's royal bounty.

It is His Royal Highness's further pleasure, that the men who, upon examination, shall be found unfit for any duty, shall be dismissed, and be settled with at the rate of one shilling and ten-pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes, until their arrival at the examining stations, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march, receiving also the like allowance to carry them back to their homes; and that while detained for examination, they shall receive the same pay and allowances as the men found fit for duty.

And it is hereby notified, that all the out-pensioners hereby called upon to attend, who shall not appear at the times and places herein appointed, will be considered as otherwise provided for by Government, or as dead, and will accordingly be struck off the books of the out-pension of the said Hospital, without any prospect of being restored thereto.
