as shall be prescribed by the General Officer commanding His Majesty's forces in that country

His Royal Highness is at the same time graciously pleased to declare, that the said private men who, upon examination, shall be found fit for service, shall receive the sum of one shilling and ten pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes until their arrival at the examining station, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march, and be afterwards subsisted until allotted to a veteran battalion, at the rate of one shilling per diem for pay, one penny per diem for beer money, and one penny per diem in lieu of the extra price of bread and meat.

His Royal Highness is also pleased to order, that every man found fit for duty shall, on his joining the veteran battalion to which he shall be appointed, receive a bounty of one pound five shillings, or so much thereof as shall remain after supplying him with proper necessaries; and it is His Royal Highness's gracious intention, that every such man whose pension is now less than nine-pence per diem, shall be entitled, when discharged, to that increased rate of out-pension, provided he be recommended by his Colonel or Commanding Officer as an object deserving of His Majesty's royal bounty.

It is His Royal Highness's further pleasure, that the men who, upon examination, shall be found unfit for any duty, shall be dismissed, and be settled with at the rate of one shilling and ten-pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes, until their arrival at the examining stations, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march, receiving also the like allowance to carry them back to their homes; and that while detained for examination, they shall receive the same pay and allowances as the men found fit for duty.

And it is hereby notified, that all the out-pensioners hereby called upon to attend, who shall not appear at the times and places herein appointed, will be considered as otherwise provided for by Government, or as dead, and will accordingly be struck off the books of the out-pension of the said Hospital, without any prospect of being restored thereto.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, PALMERSTON.
