

appear at the times and places herein appointed, will be considered as otherwise provided for by Government, or as dead, and will accordingly be struck off the books of the out-pension of the said Hospital, without any prospect of being restored thereto.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, PALMERSTON.

Army Pay-Office, June 26, 1815.

To Widows of Officers of the Land and Marine Forces.

Notice is hereby given, that the pensions from the 25th December 1814 to the 24th April 1815, will be paid to widows who may apply at this Office, between the hours of eleven and two of every day, except Saturdays and Sundays, from 28th June 1815, to the 26th July 1815, both inclusive; and that the agents of widows will be paid according to the mode adopted with regard to Half-Pay Officers; after the 26th July 1815, the payments will be made on Wednesdays only.

The documents transmitted by widows residing out of London, or receiving their pensions through Officers of the Revenue, will be acted upon with all practicable dispatch, without regard to the prescribed days of payment.

By order of the Paymaster-General,
George Gillam Mills, Cashier of Half-Pay and Widows' Pensions.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the morning of Sunday the 11th instant, about eight o'clock, Henry Ball, the toll-collector and keeper of the turnpike-gate, called the Marlborough-Pond-Gate, five miles on the road from Southampton to Winchester, was found in the turnpike-house there, with his throat cut, and his head dreadfully beaten; and that he lingered till the next day, and then died: that it appears that the said Henry Ball was murdered by some person or persons unknown, who then took from the deceased a silver watch with double case, No. 9131, maker's name, R. Haywood, London, with a steel chain and swivels, a steel key, and two brass keys annexed; and a canvas bag, with his name marked on it, containing some silver;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the actual perpetrator of this cruel and barbarous murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons concerned therein, (except the person who actually committed the said murder), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered, by the Trustees of the south district of the Southampton road, to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be thereof convicted.

No. 17030.

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue and in pursuance of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the present Session of Parliament, entitled "An Act to alter and amend two Acts made in the thirty-second and thirty-seventh years of his present Majesty, for the support and maintenance of Ramsgate Harbour, in the county of Kent," a public meeting of the Trustees of the said harbour will be held and assembled on Wednesday the 12th day of July next, at the hour of twelve of the clock at noon of the same day, at the Ramsgate Harbour Office, in Austin Friars, in the city of London, for the purpose of imposing, settling and fixing an additional rate or duty, not exceeding three pence for each ton, to be paid by the master or owner for every foreign vessel or crayer, whether the same be laden or in ballast, passing to or by Ramsgate, whether on the East or West side of the Goodwin Sands, or otherwise passing by the said harbour of Ramsgate, pursuant to the powers given by the said Act to the said Trustees, or any fifteen or more of them who shall be assembled at such meeting.—Dated the 23d day of June 1815.

John Kirkpatrick, Secretary.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,

June 27, 1815.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £58 and under £59 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
Matt. Winter, Secretary.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
June 26, 1815.

THE Managers and Directors of the lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby also give notice, that they will cut off the tickets of the fifth of those lotteries for 1814, into their respective boxes A and B, on Wednesday the 12th of July next, at this Office, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, beginning first with the benefits and blanks, which are to be cut into box B, and continuing until all the said tickets for each of the said boxes A and B are completely cut therein.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby also give notice, that they will attend and oversee the drawing of the tickets of the said fifth lottery for 1814, on Wednesday the 19th and Thursday the 27th days of July, and on Tuesday the 1st day of August next, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London.
