Marshal's Office, Berbice.

Sales by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY virtue of an appointment from His Excellency J. Murray, Brigadier-General and Acting Governor of the colony Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. given upon a petition presented for that purpose by Archibald M'Gee, qq. Colin Macrea, under date of 16th January 1813, versus the proprietor or proprietors, representative or representatives of plantation Palmyra, east coast.

Notice is hereby given to the public, at the instance of Evan Fraser, surviving partner of the house of Evan and Angus Fraser, Merchants of this colony, and which House of Commerce are now possessing, through deed of assignment, the right and interest before possessed by Colin Macrea in the debt for which plantation Palmyra is now under execution and sequestration; that I the undersigned intend to sell, at public execution sale, in the presence of two Counsellor's Commissaries, and their Secretary, in the month of December 1815, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this colony, the cotton estate called Palmyra, situate on the east coast of this colony, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances thereto belonging, the property of R. P. Broom, all comfortable to an inventory formed thereof, and now lying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, action, or interest on the abovementioned estate called Palmyra, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such persons attend themselves to the Marshal's Office, declaring their reason for so doing, in due time and form, as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every intermediate person; appoint them a day to have his or her claims heard before the Court, and farther act thereon as the law directs.

This first proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum, from the Court-House, of this colony, and further dealt with according to custom.—Berbice, 21st May 1815.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.
