Whitehall, August 15, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about three o'clock of the afternoon of Tuesday the 8th instant, a smuggling boat, with thirteen men, full of goods and armed, run on board the eight-oared boat belonging to the Fox cutter, in the service of the Revenue of Excise, on the coast of Kent; that the crew of the smuggler shot four of the boatmen, and, in the most brutal manner, threw them overboard, and beat, bruised, and wounded the other boatmen, and left them for dead on the wreck of the boat;

His Royal Highness, in order to bring these atrocious offenders to justice, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person having the command or direction of the said smuggling boat), who shall discover his or their accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise do hereby offer a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person making such discovery of any of the offenders as aforesaid, to be paid by their Secretary upon the conviction.

By order of the Board,
Tho. Burton, Secretary.

Whitehall, August 29, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that an anonymous letter has been received by the Reverend Reginald Bligh, Rector of Romaldkirk, near Barnard Castle, threatening to assassinate his family and burn his dwelling house: And whereas between the 8th and 9th instant, a barn, containing a considerable quantity of hay, belonging to the said Mr. Bligh, was burned and destroyed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felonious acts abovementioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually sent the letter abovementioned, and the person who set fire to the said barn), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by Anthony Harrison, Esq. of Barnard Castle.

Whitehall, September 1, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some short time since an anonymous letter was received by Mr. Painter, of Mixbury, in the county of Oxford, threatening to burn his house, &c.; and whereas it has been represented to the Prince Regent, that, on Saturday last, the barns and ricks belonging to the said Mr. Painter, were set on fire and consumed;
