C. Humphreys, Clerk to the Commissioners.
August 12, 1815.

Notice is hereby given of an intended application to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for obtaining an Act of Parliament for amending a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for constructing a harbour at Porthleven, in Mounts-Bay, in the county of Cornwall;" and also a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-third year of His said Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for explaining and amending an Act of His present Majesty, for constructing a harbour at Porthleven, in Mounts-Bay, in the county of Cornwall;" and for granting further powers to the Proprietors and to the Directors under the said Acts.

T. G. Vander Gucht, Solicitor, 10, Craven-Street.

At the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, holden at the Guildhall of the city of Westminster, on Saturday the 19th day of August 1815, before Charles Runninton, Esquire, Serjeant at Law, His Majesty's Commissioner for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, it is ordered by the Court, that, on or before the 2d day of October next, all and every assignee or assignees heretofore appointed by the said Court, shall and do make up a true and just account of the estate and effects of each and every prisoner, of and for which estate and effects he or they was or were appointed such assignee or assignees as aforesaid; and also make oath in writing, before the proper person appointed for that purpose, that such account contains a fair and just statement of the estate and effects of every such prisoner got in by or for such assignee or assignees as aforesaid, and of all payments made in respect thereof, up to and including the 19th day of April last, in order that such accounts so sworn may be duly filed with the proper Officer of the said Court, in pursuance of the positive directions of the statute in such case made and provided; and all and every such assignees and assignee, and all other parties concerned, are hereby required to take notice, that the time limited by this order for making up such accounts and verifying the same as aforesaid, will not be enlarged, unless upon special application on oath, made to the said Court for that purpose.

By the Court,

Thomas Clark, Clerk.

Office of Ordnance, August 16, 1815.

The Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Wednesday the 16th of September next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

for the Ordnance horses stationed in the following districts, to be delivered at the expence of the contractor, viz.

North Britain,
Northern,
Eastern, exclusive of Warley,
Southern, exclusive of Chatham,
Western,
South West, including Portsmouth, Isle of Wight, and Christchurch,
Woolwich, with its dependencies, Warley and Chatham,
Weedon, Northamptonshire,

for a period of six months from the 1st of October next.

The oats to be good, sweet, dry, and clean, without any mixture of foxy or mowburnt oats, and must not weigh less than 37lb $\frac{1}{2}$ Winchester bushel.

The hay to be sweet and dry, and delivered in trusses of 56 lb weight.

The straw to be good, clean, and dry wheat or rye straw, and delivered in trusses of 36 lb weight.

The prices to be paid for the respective quantities of each article which may be delivered, at the following rates, viz.

For the oats, at $\frac{1}{2}$ hundred pounds, avoirdupois weight.

For the hay, at $\frac{1}{2}$ hundred and twelve pounds.

For the straw, at $\frac{1}{2}$ hundred and twelve pounds.

The proposals may be delivered separately or jointly for two or more of the said districts; and it is expected that the contractor shall receive the stable dung which, during the period of his contract, may accumulate, making an allowance for the same, after the rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ horse $\frac{1}{2}$ week.

Farther particulars may be known upon application to the officers commanding the Royal Artillery in each district, and also at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up and endorsed "Proposals for Forage;" but no proposals can be admitted after the said 13th September, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
