

LONDON.

At the General Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden for the City of London, at the Guildhall, within the said City, on Monday the 11th of September, in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, before Samuel Birch, Esq. Mayor of the City of London, Sir Charles Price, Baronet, John Ansley, Esq. John Atkins, Esq. Aldermen of the said City, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lord the King within the said City; and also to hear and determine divers Felonies, Trespasses, and other Misdemeanors committed within the said City;

BE it remembered, That the Inspector of Corn Returns hath, in open Court, presented and delivered to the Lord Mayor, and Aldermen, assembled at this present Session, a certain book, into which the states or accounts of the aggregate quantities, prices, and average prices of English barley, beans, pease, rye, wheat, rapeseed, and oats, bona fide sold and delivered from the 8th day of May last, to the 5th day of August last, by each and every person carrying on the trade or business of a cornfactor in the City of London or suburbs thereof, have been made up, formed, computed, and distinguished, and fairly and properly inserted; and hath verified upon his oath, that the same have been fairly, correctly, and properly made up, formed, and computed, to the best of his power, skill, and judgment, and according, so far as in him lay, to the true intent and tenor of the Act of Parliament in that behalf: And the general average prices of each of the said respective sorts of corn and grain thereby appearing to the said Lord Mayor and Aldermen, they do, in pursuance of the said Act, deem and certify the same to be as follows, viz.

Barley	1	10	3	Average price per quarter on the last six weeks.
Beans	1	13	10
Pease	2	2	6
Rye	1	14	10
Wheat	8	6	0
Rapeseed	2	13	11	Average price per quarter on the last twelve weeks.
Oats	1	5	3

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace

September 28, 1815.

IF the heirs of Peter Elwin Wrench, late of Aylesham, in the County of Norfolk, Esq. deceased, will apply to John Hicks, Esq. of Plomer-Hill, near High Wycombe, Bucks, Esq. or to John Cowcher, Esq. Hanover-Place, Bath; if by letter (post-paid) they will hear of something to their advantage.

IF the next of kin to Miss Mary Dunn Waterman, late of Pancras-Place, Battlebridge, who died there the 29th of September last, will apply to Mr. Powell, of Cross-Street, Islington, Undertaker, by a line, or call upon him; he has something to communicate of importance.—October 5, 1815.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUIBO.

THE undersigned, in his capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises by these presents for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of a sentence of said Court and the subsequent execution, expose and sell at public execution sale, in the month of August 1816, the cotton plantations Dundee and Guyana Grove, with all their cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, both situated in a bary on the east coast of Demerary, in behalf of William Austin, qq. Davison, and Graham, of London, as also in behalf of Johnson, Dyett, M'Garel, and Co. versus John Sutherland.

The inventory of the above named plantations is daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Underwood, Hall, and Co. Copthall-Chambers, London.

The judicium of the præ and concurrence on the net proceeds of the sale of said cotton plantations Dundee and Guyana Grove, will be held by the Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale.

For which reason all those that may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said plantations, or otherwise, are herewith by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said Court of Justice, summoned to appear in person, or by their attorney, on the first day appointed for hearing, which will be holden here in the month of October 1816, in order to lay their claims in due form, under the penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.—Rio Demerary, this 19th July 1815.

A. M. MEERTENS, Deputy First Marshal.

Sussex.—Frechold Dwelling-House, Warehouse, Stables, and Premises.

TO be sold by public auction, on the 2d day of November 1815, pursuant to an order made by the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt lately awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Thomas Durrant, otherwise Thomas Durrant Parker, of Heathfield, in the County of Sussex, Carrier, Dealer and Chapman, at the Half Moon Inn, at Heathfield aforesaid, between the hours of Two and Four o'Clock in the Afternoon;

A substantial brick-built house, of modern elevation, with a large productive garden behind well stocked, and also a wood yard, with piggeries, and a well of capital water; a timber-built warehouse with corn-lofts over the same, with chaise-house, harness ditto, and fowl ditto; a new built brick and timber four stall stable, with lofts and servants room over ditto; a substantial timber-built eight horse stable, and a recently erected cow-house, with a yard behind the premises, and an inclosed rick-yard also behind the premises.—The warehouse and four stall stable fronting the road, and range in a line with the dwelling house.

The premises are all freehold and are situate in Cade-Street, Heathfield, and will be sold, without reserve, in one lot.—The above premises have been lately occupied by a London Carrier, but are well adapted for the purposes of any extensive concern.

For further particulars apply to Mr. F. Child, Solicitor, King-Street, Southwark; and Mr. Norris, Auctioneer, No. 181, Tooley-Street, Southwark.
