EDWARD BIVEN'S ESTATE.

MR. BURNE, the Administrator, hereby gives notice, that on Wednesday the 15th day of November next, he will proceed to pay a further dividend of five shillings in the pound to the creditors, in addition to the ten shillings already paid; and he hereby requires all persons who by any possibility may not have sent in their claims, whether specialty or simple contract, to do so forthwith to Messrs. Lane and Bennett, of Lawrence Pountney-Hill, Solicitors, or otherwise, and after the several notices given, he shall consider himself no longer responsible to any parties so omitting or neglecting to make their claims against the estate of the said Edward Biven, deceased.—Dated this 13th day of October 1815.

BERBICE.

From the Marshal's Office.
Summons by Edict.

By virtue of authority from His Excellency H. W. Bentinck, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor of the Colony Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. given upon a petition presented for that purpose by the curators to the estate and effects of William Threlfall, deceased, under date of 2d August 1815;

I the undersigned, at the request of aforesaid Curators, do hereby summon by edict all known and unknown creditors of the estate of William Threlfall, deceased, both in his private capacity, and as having been Deputy Vendue-Master in this colony, to appear before the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their session which will be held in the month of January 1816, there to render in their claims and pretensions against aforesaid estate, to verify the same, and further to hear, after the fourth edictal summons, the Court's decision as to the preferent or concurrent right of claimants, on pain of perpetual silence to those who remain in default of rendering their claims.

This summons by edict made known to the public by beat of drum from the Court-House of this Colony, and further dealt with according to custom.—Berbice, the 4th August 1815.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

GLAMORGANSHIRE.

To be sold, at the Ship and Castle Inn, in the Town of Neath, in the said County, on Friday the 10th day of November 1815, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, before and by order of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Mr. Edward Gwyn;

A new grist mill, on an improved principle, with three pair of stones, and replete with necessary machinery and conveniences for the flour business, worked by Bolton and Watt's last improved condensing steam engine, and capable of manufacturing from one hundred to one hundred and fifty sacks of flour per week.

The mill is situate in the Town of Neath, close to the canal communicating with the collieries in the vale of Neath, and with the ironworks at Hirbain and Aberdare, near Merthyr. This situation is in every way eligible, being in a plentiful corn country, and where a ready sale will be found for the flour.

The premises are held under a lease for ninety-nine years, determinable on the decease of the survivor of three young lives, and for twenty-one years certain, commencing from the 25th March 1814.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Powell, Solicitor, Neath.

George Elphinstone, late Purser of the Honourable East India Companies Ship Thames, deceased.

THE Creditors of the deceased, are desired forthwith to transmit an account of their debts, and a particular of any securities they may hold, to Robert Chapman, Esq. No. 3, Copthall-Chambers, London, or to Mr. William Brodrick, No. 9, Bow-Church-Yard, London, the Executors; and all persons indebted to the deceased, are desired immediately to pay the amount of their debts to Mr. Chapman.

THE Creditors of Elisha Dickens, formerly of Fernellee, near Buxton, in the County of Derby, Cotton-Spinner, an Insolvent, lately confined in the prison of the City of Chester, and since discharged from the said prison, by virtue of an order made by Arthur Palmer, Esq. the Commissioner of the Court for the discharge of Insolvent Debtors in England, are requested to meet at the Office of Mr. John Wright, Attorney at Law, Macclesfield, in the County of Chester, on the 4th day of November next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, in order to choose an Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.

THE Creditors of Charles Fallon, late Captain in the 11th regiment of Light Dragoons, and since a prisoner for debt in the King's Bench prison, in the County of Surrey, but who was lately discharged therefrom under and by virtue
