Notice to the Creditors of Stuarde Cheyne, Bookseller, Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, October 16, 1815.

THE Trustee begs to intimate to the creditors, that from considerable delay arising from the Bankruptcy of the former Trustee, as well as the discussion of legal proceedings to obtain possession of the papers from that Trustee and his agent, he has been unavoidably prevented from proceeding in the sequestration with the usual expedition. That although the whole funds are not yet realised, part of them have been recovered, and it is the intention of the Trustee to make an interim dividend. Indeed, certain cross rankings upon other Bankrupt estates must for some time prevent a final dividend taking place: but even before an interim dividend can be made, it is necessary to inform the creditors, that several of them have not yet produced their oaths of verity; at least, if they have been produced, from the embarrassment of former management, they have been mislaid, and cannot be found.

The Trustee, therefore, requires that they be lodged with Andrew Spalding, Writer, in Edinburgh, on or before the 17th day of November next at farthest; with certification, that if any fail to do so, they will forfeit their share of the funds which will be thereafter divided.
