SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1815.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the second day of November next: And whereas by Our Order in Council of the nineteenth of this instant October, it was ordered, that the said Parliament should be prorogued on the said second day of November to Thursday the first day of February next; and that the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, should prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: And whereas by Our Proclamation of the said nineteenth of this instant October, We did, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, publish and declare, that the said Parliament should, on the said first day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of ~~divers~~ <sup>urgent</sup> and important affairs: And whereas We, taking the premises into Our consideration, have, for divers reasons, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, ordered and declared, that the aforesaid Order in Council and Proclamation should be discharged and recalled, and that the said Parliament be prorogued from the said Thursday the second day of November to Wednesday the seventeenth day of January next; We do therefore hereby publish and declare, that the said Order in Council and Proclamation are discharged and recalled accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the thirty-first day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

PRINCE OF WALES'S COUNCIL.

November 13, 1815.

Whitehall, November 18, 1815.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this realm; such persons shall be incapable of taking any legacy, or of being an executor or administrator, or of taking any lands, &c. within this kingdom, by descent, devise, or purchase, and shall forfeit all lands, goods, &c. within this kingdom, to His Majesty's use, and shall be deemed alien, and out of His Majesty's protection.

Upon complaint made, upon oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any person is endeavouring to seduce any such artificer, or that any such artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's dominions, for the purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his warrant to bring the person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the oath of one witness, or by confession, that he was guilty of any of the said offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such person shall refuse to give security, the Justice may commit him to gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due course of law. And if any such artificer shall be convicted, upon indictment, of any such promise, contract, or preparation to go beyond the seas, for the purpose aforesaid, he shall give such security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till security given.

If any of the above offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any artificer in wool, mohair, cotton, or silk, or in iron, steel, brass, or other metal, or any clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer in any other of the manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this kingdom or Ireland into any foreign country not within the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon indictment or information, in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the county, &c. wherein such offence shall be committed in England, or by indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by indictment or information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such offence be committed in Ireland; the person so convicted shall, for every artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county or stewardry wherein such offender shall be convicted for twelve calendar months, and until forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent offence of the same kind, the persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county or stewardry wherein such offender shall be convicted, for two years, and until such forfeiture be paid.

If any person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any ship or boat, not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland; or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such tools or utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the preparing, working up, or finishing of the woollen or silk manufactures, or any part of such tools, he shall, for every offence, forfeit all such tools, or parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's warehouses, all such tools or utensils prohibited to be exported, as such officer shall find on board any vessel not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all tools so seized shall, after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder; and one moiety of the produce shall be to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his vessel, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the penalties inflicted upon persons exporting the tools; and, if the vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his employment, and be incapable of any employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any entry outward, or sign any cocket or sufferance for the shipping or exporting of any of the said tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his office, and be incapable of any office under His Majesty.

One moiety of the forfeitures shall be applied to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like penalties and forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to persons packing or putting on board any vessel, not bound directly for some port in Great Britain or Ireland, any machine, engine, tool, press, paper, utensil, or implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the cotton, steel, or iron manufactures of this kingdom, or any part or parts of such machines or implements, or any models or plans thereof; and all Captains of ships and other persons receiving or being in possession of any such articles, with an intent to export the same to foreign parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of tools and utensils used in the woollen and silk manufactures.

Whitehall, November 17, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about eleven o'clock on the night of Monday the 6th instant, a fire broke out in the rick-yard of Mr. John Denne, at Tewin Bury Farm, Welwyn, in the county of Hereford, and that there is every reason to suppose that the said ricks were set on fire by some malicious person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by Mr. L. Frank, Agent to the Norwich Union Fire-Office, at Welwyn.

FIVE HUNDRED GUINEAS REWARD.

Whitehall, October 23, 1815.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about midnight of the 18th of this month, the brig Renown, George Moore Cleugh, owner, laying moored at the gates of Messrs. Laing's dock, in South Shields, was discovered to be on fire, and was very materially damaged; and whereas there is strong ground for suspecting that the said fire was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony abovementioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the vessel abovementioned) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the persons guilty of the said felony, so that they may be duly convicted thereof.

The above reward of five hundred guineas to be paid by the General Committee of the Shipping Interest of the Port of Tyne.

Whitehall, October 2, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil disposed person or persons did on the evening of Thursday the 21st ultimo, between the hours of seven and eight, set fire to various ricks of corn, the property of Mr. John Hole, of Saunton-Court, within the parish of Braunton, in the county of Devon, which totally destroyed the same;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said corn ricks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered, viz. ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the West of England Fire and Life Insurance Company, the sum of FIFTY POUNDS by J. Cleveland, Esq. Lord of the Manor of Saunton, and a further sum of FIFTY POUNDS by the said Mr. John Hole, and TEN POUNDS by the Braunton Association, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Navy-Office, November 8, 1815.

— TO MECHANISTS AND OTHERS.
IMPROVED SIGNAL LANTERNS WANTED.

AS it would be much to the advantage of His Majesty's service, to obtain Signal Lanterns of such an improved construction as would exhibit a better light than the lanterns at present in use in His Majesty's Navy; the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that they will receive at their Office, in Somerset-Place, all such specimens of improved Signal Lanterns, either for oil or candle, as shall be left for inspection and trial on or before the 1st day of February 1816. And as a REWARD to the persons who shall produce the best constructed lanterns, a premium of FIFTY GUINEAS will be paid by the said Principal Officers and Commissioners for the best specimen, and TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS will be paid by them for the second best specimen, upon such lanterns being approved of after a trial having been made of them.

And every person who may leave a lantern at the Navy-Office, Somerset-Place, for inspection and trial, is requested to mark on such lantern his name and place of abode, in order that such lanterns as shall not be approved of by the said Commissioners, may be returned to the party who shall have left the same as aforesaid.

G. Smith.

Navy-Office, November 2, 1815.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 22d instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner the Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart. will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas, Hammocks, Haversacks, Hoses, Colours with Tabling, Fearnought, Junk and Rope in Paper-Stuff, &c. &c. &c.

All lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

CONTRACT FOR CAST IRON MOORING BLOCKS.

Navy-Office, November 17, 1815.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 6th of December next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, with Cast Iron Mooring Blocks, of such sizes as shall be required.

A pattern of the blocks, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 300l. for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, November 13, 1815.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that they will sell by public auction, at the Tower, on Thursday the 30th of November instant and following day, at eleven o'clock precisely on those days, sundry lots of old and unserviceable stores, consisting of Hames, collars, bit halters, rope traces, and various other articles of sadlery and harness; clothing and sundry articles of bedding; powder horns, tents, tent poles and pieces;

drums, bugles, and trumpets; musket and pistol stocks, cast and wrought iron round and double-headed shot; cast iron trucks, and wrought iron carriage work; bushel iron, steel, copper, pewter, and mixed metal, horse shoe nails, tools of sorts, spades, shovels, bellows, lanterns, standing vices, carts and wheelbarrows, empty casks and barrels, cartridges, helmets, sundry old building materials and fir scantling, portable forges, handscrews and anvils, wheels and elm board;

together with a variety of other articles; the whole of which may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower, and at the Royal Arsenal at Woolwich, until the day of sale; at which places printed lists of the lots will be delivered to those persons who may apply for the same.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
