WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Saturday the 7th day of October last, an outhouse at Howick-Farm, belonging to William Currie, Esq. of Itton-Court, near Chepstow, in which was a large thrashing machine, was discovered to be on fire, whereby the same, together with a quantity of grain and the machine were totally destroyed, and a poor man, who slept in the building, perished in the flames: And whereas, nearly about the same time, an outhouse at Itton-Court, about half a mile distant from Howick, in which was also a thrashing machine, was discovered to be on fire, and there is every reason to believe that both such buildings were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said buildings) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by Messrs. Evans and Sob, Solicitors, in Chepstow.

Whitehall, November 27, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that an anonymous letter was some time ago received by Mr. Henry Luffe, of Benhall, near Saxmundham, threatening his life and to set his stacks on fire: And whereas it hath been further represented to His Royal Highness, that, between the hours of nine and ten in the evening of Monday the 13th instant, a barn situated in Benhall aforesaid, containing a considerable quantity of corn, belonging to the said Henry Luffe, was maliciously set on fire and consumed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonious acts abovementioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually sent the letter abovementioned, and the person who set on fire the above barn), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by the said Henry Luffe.
