By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Wednesday the seventeenth day of January next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said seventeenth day of January to Thursday the first day of February next; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the first day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said first day of February next.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-seventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Drew, of Newtown, in the county of Montgomery, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed Thomas Badger the younger, of Rotherham, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed Thomas Jardine, of Bolton-le-Moors, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 2, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Saturday the 7th day of October last, an outhouse at Howick-Farm, belonging to William Currie, Esq. of Itton-Court, near Chepstow, in which was a large thrashing machine, was discovered to be on fire, whereby the same, together with a quantity of grain and the machine were totally destroyed, and a poor man, who slept in the building, perished in the flames: And whereas, nearly about the same time, an outhouse at Itton-Court, about half a mile distant from Howick, in which was also a thrashing machine, was discovered to be on fire, and there is every reason to believe that both such buildings were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said buildings) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is
