

12th day of June next; and that the person or persons entitled thereto may receive the same at the Office of the Chamberlain of this City, for the time being, at the Guildhall of the same City, at which time the annuity or annuities, payable to such person or persons respectively, shall cease and determine; and do further give notice, that in case the person or persons to whom the same shall respectively belong, or either of them, shall be minded to receive the principal sum, together with such interest or annuity as shall be respectively due to them, or either of them, on any day previous to the said 12th day of June, and shall deliver in a declaration in writing of such his, her, or their intention, and the day on which he, she, or they respectively mean to receive the same, at the Office of the Chamberlain of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, then and in every such case, he, she, or they shall, at the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declaration as aforesaid, respectively be paid the said principal sum and the interest or proportionate annuity due upon the same, at the said Office; and all interest and annuity due upon such principal sum shall cease and determine from the day expressed in such declaration in writing as aforesaid.

Eighty-six bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbers forty-five to one hundred and thirty, both inclusive.

Ordered, that Mr. Chamberlain do publish the said notice in the London Gazette, and two or more daily papers published in the Cities of London and Westminster. Woodthorpe.

TEMPLE-BAR AND SNOW-HILL BONDS.— 1811.

Guildhall, December 14, 1815.

PURSUANT to an order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, I do hereby give notice, that the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the 12th day of June next ensuing, upon the undermentioned bonds, under the common seal of this City, and made payable to me, my executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will be then paid off and discharged at my Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same, and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine; and I do hereby further give notice, that all and every person and persons possessed of the said bonds, or any of them, who shall be minded to receive the principal sums due on the same, or any of them, before the said 12th day of June, may and shall receive the same, together with all interest or proportionate annuity due in respect thereof respectively, on delivering a declaration, in writing under his, her, or their respective hand or hands, at my said Office, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, expressing the day on which he, she, or they is or are minded to receive the same, after the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declaration as aforesaid, and that all interest or proportionate annuity on the said principal sums respectively will cease and determine from the day expressed in the said declaration as aforesaid, viz.

Eighty-six bonds of one hundred pounds each, raised in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-first of His present Majesty, chap. 203, numbers forty-five to one hundred and thirty, both inclusive. Richard Clark, Chamberlain.

The Right Honourable Elizabeth Viscountess Lumley's Charity.

Thomas Paul, Deputy Clerk of the Peace for the north riding of the county of York, do hereby certify, that a memorial or statement of the above-mentioned charity has been duly registered amongst the records of the sessions of the peace of the said riding, pursuant to the Act of Parliament lately made and provided for the registering and securing charitable donations. In which said memorial or statement it is stated and set forth, that the objects of the before-mentioned charity or charitable foundation are, twelve poor people to reside in almshouses erected at Thornton, in the said north riding of the county of York, of which people six are to be of the parish of Sinnington, four of the parish of Thornton, and two of the respective parishes or places of Marton, Great Edston, Little Edston, and Farmanby, all in the said north riding of the county of York; six poor people to reside in almshouses erected in the parishes of St. Botolph, Bishopsgate, and St. Botolph, Aldgate, London, or in one of them, of which six people three are to be of the said parish of St. Botolph, Bishopsgate, and three of the said parish of St. Botolph, Aldgate; a schoolmaster at Thornton, for the schooling, instructing, and teaching of the children of the parishes of Sinnington and Thornton, and reading prayers twice every day, and preaching once every Sabbath Day to the said twelve poor people, and also to the scholars educated at the chapel or school erected at Thornton aforesaid, under the foundation of the said charity, and to others of the inhabitants of Sinnington and Thornton which should resort thither; poor persons imprisoned in York Castle only for debt, and through losses and other casualties or extremities; five poor scholars of the Universities of Cambridge and Oxford, educated at the said school, and until they are respectively Graduates; eight male children of the parishes of Sinnington, Thornton, Marton, Great and Little Edston, and Farmanby, in the said county of York, in order to their being placed out as apprentices; and a schoolmaster at Sinnington, to teach the children of the inhabitants of that parish; that the said charity or charitable foundation was founded by the Right Honourable Elizabeth Viscountess Lumley, the then wife of the Right Honourable Viscount Lumley, formerly the wife of Sir William Sandys, late of Mottisfont, in the county of Southampton, Knt.; and that the deed poll by which the said charity was founded, is dated the 8th day of October 1657, and is inrolled in the High Court of Chancery; and the Trustees of the real estates belonging to the