Whitehall, January 16, 1816.

His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant the dignity of a Baronet of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland unto Lieutenant-General Sir Robert Browning, Knight

Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander in Chief of the British Settlements in the Island of Ceylon, and Colonel of His Majesty's 9th Regiment of Foot, and to his heirs male of his body lawfully begotten.

Excise-Office, London, January 2, 1816.

Whereas in the night of the 24th ultimo, Mr. Andrew Elworthy Adams, Supervisor of Excise at Battle, together with William Hampton and Edward Rayner, Excise Officers, after having made a seizure of run goods at John's Cross, in the parish of Mountfield, and county of Sussex, were most violently assaulted by five or six men, armed with bludgeons and pikes, and the Supervisor and one of the Officers dangerously wounded;

The Commissioners of Excise, in order to bring to justice these outrageous offenders, one of whom, named John Hayward, is in custody, do hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any person who shall discover any other of them, so that he or they may be convicted; to be paid by their Secretary upon the conviction.

By order of the Board,

Thos. Burton, Secretary.

COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX.

LIFE ANNUITIES WITH BENEFIT OF SURVIVORSHIP.

Tontine 1790, Class 2, No. 14.

Notice to the Person entitled to the above Annuity.

Whereas in pursuance of a proposal for raising a sum not exceeding thirty thousand pounds upon the credit of the county rates, by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, entitled "An Act to enable the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex to raise money in manner therein mentioned for erecting a House of Correction within the said County" by Tontine, in classes, at four pounds ten shillings per centum per annum, with benefit of Survivorship in each respective class, Amelia Hallett, of Highgate, in the said county, widow, did subscribe the sum of two hundred pounds, in consideration that she, the said Amelia Hallett, her executors, administrators and assigns, should receive one annuity of nine pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, for and during the natural life of Amelia Marsh, daughter of John Marsh, of Colman-street, in the city of London, deceased, by Amelia Hallett, the subscriber, late Amelia Marsh, for two shares in a certain Tontine, established under and by virtue of the said Act, to be paid and payable out of the rates to be raised and levied for the public purposes of the said county, called the County Rates, by even-half yearly payments in every year, with benefit of Survivorship in that class to which such life belonged, according to the stipulations contained in the said proposal; and whereas the said Annuity afterwards became the property of Paul Horsford, of New Boswell-court, Esquire, who intermarried with the said Amelia Marsh, and the said Paul Horsford assigned over his interest therein to Thomas Cooper, of George-street, Adelphi, Gentleman, his executors, administrators and assigns, by a deed, bearing date the 21st day of June 1800; and whereas the said Thomas Cooper, his executors, administrators and assigns, hath or have not made any claim for payment of the said Annuity or dividends for more than four successive days of half yearly payments, since the same have become due;

Notice is therefore hereby given to the said Thomas Cooper, to Amelia Horsford, formerly Marsh, the nominee, or to the person entitled to receive the Annuity or dividends payable during the life of the abovenamed Amelia Marsh, classed and numbered as above, in the said Tontine, to come in and claim the same; and that if after this Notice such Annuity or dividends shall remain unclaimed for six months, the proprietor or proprietors of such Annuity or dividends will forfeit the same, and all further claim to and interest in the said Annuity or dividends, and the same will be divided among, and be continued to the Survivors belonging to the Class wherein such life was, after deducting the expenses attending this Notice, pursuant to the terms of the said proposal.—Dated the 1st day of January 1816.

George Boulton Mainwaring, Treasurer of the said Tontine, Session-House, Clerk-enwell.

COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX.

LIFE ANNUITIES WITH BENEFIT OF SURVIVORSHIP.

Tontine 1790, Class 2, No. 26.

Notice to the Person entitled to the above Annuity.

WHEREAS in pursuance of a proposal for raising a sum not exceeding thirty thousand pounds upon the credit of the county rates, by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, entitled "An Act to enable the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex to raise Money in manner therein mentioned for erecting a House of Correction within the said County" by Tontine, in Classes, at four pounds ten shillings per centum per annum, with benefit of Survivorship in each respective Class, the Reverend William Porter, of Highgate, in the said county, did subscribe the sum of one hundred pounds, in consideration that he the said William Porter, his executors, administrators and assigns, should receive one Annuity of four pounds ten shillings of lawful money of Great Britain for and during the natural life of Barbara Harriet Porter, daughter of the said William Porter, by Mary his wife, out of the rates to be raised and levied for the public purposes of the said county, called the County Rates, by even half yearly payments in every year, with benefit of Survivorship in that Class to which such life belonged, according to the stipulations contained in the said proposal; and whereas the said William Porter did, by writing under his hand, bearing date the 23rd day of May 1792, assign and transfer his right, title and interest in the said Annuity, and all benefit and advantage arising therefrom, unto James Fennell, his executors, administrators and assigns: and whereas the said James Fennell, his executors, administrators and assigns, hath or have not made any claim for payment of the said Annuity or dividends for more than four successive days of half yearly payments since the same have become due,

Notice is therefore hereby given to the said James Fennell, to the said Barbara Harriet Porter, the nominee, or to the person entitled to receive the Annuity or dividends payable during the life of the above-named Barbara Harriet Porter, classed and numbered as above in the said Tontine, to come in and claim the same; and that if after this Notice such Annuity or dividends shall remain unclaimed for six months, the proprietor or proprietors of such Annuity or dividends will forfeit the same, and all further claim to and interest in the said Annuity or dividends, and the same will be divided among, and be continued to the Survivors belonging to the Class wherein such life was, after deducting the expenses attending this Notice, pursuant to the terms of the said proposal.—Dated the 1st day of January 1816.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissary in Chief's-Office, Great George-Street, December 28, 1815.

Notice is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

BREAD, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned County,

Sussex;

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the undermentioned Counties and Island,

Dorset,	Norfolk,
Durham (including Holy Island),	Suffolk (exclusive of Landguard Fort and its Dependencies),
Essex,	Surrey,
Hants,
Isle of Wight,
Kent,

And in the several Counties in North Britain;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of February next, and to continue for one month only; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Thursday the 25th day of January; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day, and, if sent by post, the postage must be paid.

Proposals must be made separately for each county and island, except for the counties comprising North Britain, all of which must be included in one tender; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering; in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be stationed or supplied in the county, the expence of the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, to be refunded to him by the Commissary in Chief.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at this Office, between the hours of eleven and five; and at the Office of Deputy Commissary-General Young, Edinburgh.

Most desirable situation for a Miller, and Merchant, Exning, near Newmarket, Suffolk.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs Bullen and Isaacson, at the White Hart-Inn, Newmarket, in the County aforesaid, on Tuesday the 6th of February 1816, between the hours of Twelve and Two, with the consent of the mortgagees, and before the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Henry James Hunt, Miller, of Exning aforesaid, subject to such conditions of sale as will be then and there produced, the following valuable estate, in lots, viz.

Lot 1. All that substantial brick and tiled sash fronted dwelling house, comprising an entrance hall, dining and drawing rooms, kitchen, study, store rooms, and other offices on the ground floor, four excellent sleeping rooms, and two attics, a detached dairy, and coal house, two stables with granary over, coach house, large timber warehouse, substantial granary, cow house, piggery, and other convenient out-buildings; a coal yard walled in, large kitchen garden and orchard well planted, a pleasure garden in front of the house, and about an acre and an half of exceeding rich pasture land immediately adjoining, together with a substantial water corn mill recently rebuilt, wherein are two pair of French stones, a dressing machine or mill, with the going gears, and apparatus complete; in the best state of preservation, being nearly all new, and store bins capable of holding upwards of four hundred coombs of grain.

Lot 2. A post windmill with one pair of French stones, mill gears, and every other apparatus in good preservation, together with three acres and three roods, be the same more or less, of excellent arable land adjoining the same.

Lot 3. A piece or parcel of rich old inclosed arable land, containing upwards of two acres, adjoining to lot one, and abutting upon the village, part of which is planted with lucerne.

Lot 4. The Bankrupt's interest as tenant of, and in a small farm in Exning aforesaid, under a lease of ten years, nine of which were unexpired at Michaelmas last.

N. B. The whole of lots one, two and three are freehold, except the small piece of land on which the windmill stands, which is leasehold, subject to the annual payment of 6s. to Lady Cotton.

The above situation is well calculated for the carrying on an extensive and lucrative mercantile concern, being situate within two miles of Newmarket, sixteen from Bury, and twelve from Cambridge.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Wotton Isaacson, Solicitor, Mildenhall, or to the Auctioneers, Bury and Moulton.
