*Navy Pay-Office, London,
January 20, 1816.*

IT having been found in some instances, that where licences have been withdrawn by the Treasurer of the Navy, from persons who had been authorised by him to act as agents for petty officers and seamen, have subsequently been employed by Commissioned Officers in the Navy as agents, the Treasurer thinks it expedient to publish the names of all the persons from whom he has thought it his duty to withdraw his licences, viz.

John Molyneux, Liverpool, for not having accounted for monies received for seamen.

John Palfreman, Liverpool, on the same ground.

Matthew Rowe, Portsea, on the same ground.

Matthew Kirk, London, on the same ground.

Jeremiah Hacker, London, on the same ground.

Henry Adams, Portsea, on the same ground.

Abraham Jones, Sheerness, on the same ground.

Gregory Jeremiah Briggs, Gravesend, for changing his place of abode without giving notice, in order to evade just claims of seamen upon him.

Asher Nathan, Plymouth, on the same ground.

Thomas Forrester, London, on the same ground.

John Abrahams, London, being a minor.

Samuel Davis, London, for charging a seaman with money, under the pretence of the same having been distributed among clerks in the Navy-Office, &c.

Michael Davis, London, licence expiring, renewal of it withheld positively on the ground of his having refused to account for monies received for seamen, unless they would agree to take a part of the amount in slops.

Charles Rorke, London, for having practised an imposition upon a seaman.

Anthony Tudor Cannon, London, for having changed his abode without giving notice to the Treasurer thereof.

Lewis Isaacs, Portsea, licence expiring, renewal of it withheld for having abused the trust reposed in him.

Jacob Zachariah, Portsmouth, for having evaded the payment of some prize-money received for two seamen.

Simon Jonas, London, for having failed to pay prize-money received for the relation of a deceased seaman.

Gillum Daniels, jun. Portsea, for not having accounted to three seamen for prize-money received for them.

Daniel Jacob, Broad-Street, Portsmouth, for having practised a fraud upon a seaman.

Richard St. Amour, Portsmouth, for removing without giving notice to the Treasurer thereof.

Gillum Daniels, sen. Gosport, for having failed to account to the relation of a deceased seaman in respect to a document lodged with him.

William Giles, of Bristol, for neglecting to account to the representative of a deceased seaman, and for detaining the check.

Lewin Johnston, Plymouth-Dock, on the ground of being under the age of twenty-one years.

Henry Phillips, late of College-Street, Portsea, for removing, without giving notice to the Treasurer thereof.

William Harvey, Gloucester-Street, Portsea, on the ground of having withheld prize-money which he had received for seamen, after repeated calls upon him to pay it.

John Woodham, late of Golden Lion-Lane, Ports-
