

City of London, Merchants, Dealers and Chapmen (surviving Partners of John Henry Pennell, deceased), are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 17th day of May next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Alliston, Huddleby, and Poynton, Solicitors to the Commission, in Freeman's-Court, Cornhill, London, in order to take into consideration a certain indenture of settlement made between the said Lovell Pennell and his wife, and the opinions of Counsel which have been taken thereon; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee acting on such opinions, or to authorise the Assignee to act in such other manner with respect to such settlement as shall be then determined on; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Fletcher, of Trafalgar-Street, City-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 11th of May next, at Eleven of the Clock to the Forenoon, at the House of William Ward, the Bull and Mouth Inn, in Leeds, in the County of York, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee executing or consenting to any such assignment or assignments, letters of licence, deed or deeds, or agreement or agreements of composition, or other instruments for the settlement of the affairs, and accepting such composition or dividend under the same as have already been made or proposed, or shall hereafter be made or proposed, by or on behalf of certain person and persons indebted to the estate of the said Bankrupt, who are, or are supposed to be, or shall become insolvent, a list of whose names will be produced and read at the said meeting, and which list is now ready for inspection, on applying to Messrs. Fisher, Richardson, and Gault, Solicitors, at their Offices in Leeds, and at 29, Poultry, London; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee accepting any payment or payments of money by instalments, or otherwise as he shall deem it expedient, by way of composition, from any person or persons whose names or firms are inserted in the said list; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Henry Green, of Botley, in the County of Hants, and of the Hagent, Duchy-Portery, in the County of Middlesex, Ship-Wright, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 1st of May next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Crown Inn, in Bishops-Wytham, in the said County of Hants, to take into their consideration the propriety of the said Assignees appointing a Bailiff or bailiffs to manage the farms of the said Bankrupt, or otherwise letting the same to tenants at will, at rents in their discretion, until a sale of his estates or part thereof can be made with advantage to his Creditors, and thereupon to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying into effect the same, and to provide a sufficient fund for that purpose in case it shall be determined to be so carried on; and also to the said Assignees cutting any timber from off any part of the said Bankrupt's estate, with the concurrence of the respective mortgagees thereof or other persons interested therein; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing to the said Bankrupt any sum or sums of money for his maintenance while he remains in prison; and also to the payment of all or any of the Bankrupt's servants, the whole or any part of their wages; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees presenting or resisting any petition, or commencing, prosecuting, or defending, any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Lees and Samuel Lees, of Halifax, in the County of York, Merchants, Dealers, Chapmen and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 6th of May next, at Eleven o'Clock to the Forenoon precisely, at the White Lion, Inn, in Halifax aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all the outstanding debts and other effects of every description, of or belonging to the estates of the said Bankrupts or either of them, and all securities for the same; and all dividends which shall or may hereafter be declared or become payable, for or in respect of such debts or any of them, and particularly the dividends and interest of the said Assignees under certain deeds of trust entered into and executed by them with the consent of the Creditors of the said Bankrupts, either by public auction or private contract, as they the said Assignees shall think proper, that a final dividend of the estates and effects of the said Bankrupts may be declared as speedily as possible.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Buckenidge, of Pangbourne, in the County of Berks, Timber-Merchant, Wheelwright, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 10th day of May next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. J. Newbery, No 36, Great Queen-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the freehold and leasehold estates, stock in trade, and other property and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any or either of them, or any part of any or either of them, by public auction or by private contract, and at such times and in such lots as the said Assignees may think most beneficial to the estate of the said Bankrupt; and also as to their buying in any part or parts thereof, which may be put up to sale by auction, for the purpose of preventing the same from being sold at a less price or less prices than they, the Assignees should consider to be the value thereof; and also as to their carrying on the said wheelwright's business for a limited period, so as to finish or complete from the timber and materials upon the Bankrupt's late premises, many unfinished articles which were in a course of manufacture at the time of his bankruptcy; and also as to the Assignees paying all such sum and sums of money as have since the bankruptcy been disbursed or shall hereafter be disbursed, in carrying on the same trade or relative thereto; and also as to their paying the rent of part of the premises in the Bankrupt's occupation, and the rates and taxes of the whole thereof, and also the wages of the servants, workmen and labourers in full; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Anthony Stephenson, of Camden-Street, in the Parish of Tynemouth, in the County of Northumberland, Master-Mariner, Ship-Owner, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee or Assignees (to be chosen) of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 9th of May next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the George Tavern, North Shields, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee or Assignees (to be then chosen) selling or disposing of a freehold dwelling-house and the household furniture; and also of a certain ship or vessel called the Sally, of the Port of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and other effects which were the property of the said Bankrupt, by public sale or private contract, at such time or times, and in such manner as the said Assignee or Assignees shall of himself or themselves think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee or Assignees taking and accepting from the purchaser or purchasers of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, such bill or bills of exchange, promissory note or notes, or other security or securities as he or they in his or their discretion shall think fit, for the payment of the amount or value of the said estate and effects, or such part thereof as shall be sold and disposed of, by public sale or private contract as aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee or Assignees paying and allowing certain costs, charges and expenses incurred in the making and preparing of certain indentures of lease, release and assignment from the said Bankrupt to Trustees in the said assignment mentioned, for the equal benefit of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt; and also in reimbursing the said Trustees all such other costs, charges and ex-
