His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood on Antony Buller, Esq. on being appointed one of the Judges at Bengal.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge has been pleased to appoint the Reverend Edward Foster, LL. B. and Prebendary of Wells, to be one of His Royal Highness's Domestic Chaplains.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the East Riding of the County of York, and Town and County of the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Militia.

John Richardson, Gent. to be Lieutenant, vice Shore, promoted. Dated January 19, 1816.

John Kidd, Gent. to be ditto. Dated January 30, 1816.

1st Battalion of Local Militia.

The Right Honourable Constantine Viscount Normanby to be Captain. Dated April 10, 1816.

Whitehall, April 30, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto James Walker, Esq. Post Captain in the Royal Navy, and Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal was pleased to honour him in the year 1808, in testimony of the high sense that Prince entertains of his great merit, and of the services rendered by him to the kingdom of Portugal; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms.

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 26, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto John Harter, of Wakefield, in the county of York, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may from henceforth assume and take the surname of Hatfield, in lieu of that of Harter, and also bear and use the arms of Harter, from affectionate regard to the memory of his relative Dorothy Hatfield, late of Hatfield, in the county of York, spinster, sister and sole heir of Francis Hatfield, late of the same place, Esq. deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

WE, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain, do hereby declare, in pursuance of an Act of the forty-seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act to allow, for two years from and after the passing of this Act, an additional bounty on double-refined sugar, and to extend former bounties on other refined sugar, to such as shall be pounded, crushed, or broken; and to allow, for one year certain bounties on British plantation raw sugar exported," that the regulations in the said Act contained, relating to the application of the bounties on lump or loaf sugar pounded, crushed, or broken, or on sugar candy, in pursuance thereof, shall be extended to the port of Whitehaven.

Given under our hands this 10th day of May, 1816.

N. VANSITTART,
LOWTHER.

G. GRANT, Jan.

Whitehall, May 7, 1816.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of the 3d instant, a barn, belonging to Mr. Grigby, at Drinkston, near Woolpit, in the county of Suffolk, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Grigby to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.
