

Notice is hereby given, that the Partnership lately between us, Joseph Moore, of Bishop-Monkton, in the County of York, James Tennant, of Leeds, in the said County, and Jonathan Foster, of Bishop-Monkton aforesaid, Flax-Spinners, carrying on business at Bishop-Monkton aforesaid, under the firm of Moore, Tennant, and Company, was this day by mutual consent dissolved: As witness our hands this 4th day of May 1816.

Jos. Moore.
Jon. Foster.
James Tennant.

THE Partnership lately subsisting between John Heskins, of Nailsworth, in the County of Gloucester, and James Batten, of Plymouth-Dock, in the County of Devon, in Wool-Factors, under the firm of Heskins and Batten, was on the 17th day of May last dissolved by mutual consent.

John Heskins.
Jas. Batten.

Notice is hereby given, that the Partnership lately subsisting between us the undersigned, William Alexander Dewar Fotherington and James Waller Coffin, of Plymouth Dock, in the County of Devon, Coal-Merchants and Ship-Owners, carried on under the firm of Fotherington, Coffin, and Co. was this day dissolved by mutual consent. All debts owing to and from the said Partnership will be received and paid by the said William Alexander Dewar Fotherington, who will carry on the trade in future on his own separate account. As witness our hands this 17th day of May 1816.

W. A. D. Fotherington.
James W. Coffin.

THE late Mr. James Batten, formerly of Millbank-Street, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, Barrister, and afterwards of Banks-Eye House, near Morton-in-the-Marsh, in the County of Gloucester, Esq. is requested to apply for information concerning him to Messrs. Hutchinson and Hopkins, No. 3, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, London.—It is requested that no person will apply who is not fully prepared with evidence of the fact.

THE representatives of Nathaniel Modigliani and of ——— Munsell, formerly of the Stock-Exchange, may bear of something to their advantage, by applying to Mr. Wade, at the Committee-Room of the Stock-Exchange.

Bath, May 16, 1816.

All persons indebted to the estate of John Gibson, Esq. of No. 7, Daniel-Street, in the Parish of St. James, London, are requested to pay the same to the undersigned, or to the Marshal of the Court, at the Court of Sessions, in the City of London, on or before the 15th day of June next, or the same shall be paid by the Marshal of the Court, at the expense of the estate. As witness my hand and seal this 15th day of May 1816.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

By virtue of an appointment from the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, dated the 27th January 1816, given upon a petition presented by W. Katz, in quality as the attorney of Samuel and Elizabeth Ames, of Barbadoes; Notice is hereby given to the public, that the undersigned, as the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell at public execution sale, in the month of February 1817, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this Colony, the western two thirds of Lot No. 11, Correntine Coast, being a cotton estate, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and other appurtenances thereto belonging, the property of Richard Harris, deceased, in order to recover from the proceeds of said estate such sum of money as wherefore the said estate has been taken in execution.

Should therefore any person think himself entitled to oppose this intended execution sale, let such persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this Colony, declaring their reasons for so doing in due time and form, as I hereby give notice, that I will receive in opposition every intermediate person, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act therein as the law directs.

This first proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, Neg. Amsterdam, this 17th day of March 1816.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

OYSTER-STREET, AND WHITE HART-ROW, PORTSMOUTH.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Garnett, on Friday the 31st day of May instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, precisely, at the Star and Garter Inn, Broad-Street, Portsmouth, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Clement Cox, in two lots;

Lot 1. All that roomy and convenient freehold messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, with the kitchen, yard, and outlet thereunto belonging, situate and being No. 24, in Oyster-Street, Portsmouth, late in the possession of the said Bankrupt, but now unoccupied, admeasuring in front eighteen feet and two inches, and in the rear, including a passage, twenty-one feet and six inches, and in depth, on the north side, seventy-one feet and nine inches, and on the south side sixty-five feet and eight inches; the dwelling-house contains a shop, sitting room behind, back parlour, drawing-room, best bedchamber, and three good attics, fitted up with convenient closets.

Lot 2. All that freehold messuage or tenement, used as a Painter and Glazier's shop, situate in White Hart-Row, in Portsmouth aforesaid, lately occupied by Mr. William Banting, but now unoccupied, containing in front ten feet and nine inches, and in the rear nineteen feet and two inches.

The above premises are desirably situated in the very centre of Portsmouth, and a purchaser will be accommodated with possession on the completion of his purchase.

May be viewed by applying at Mr. Rodick's Store, No. 16, Oyster-Street, Portsmouth; and further particulars known of the Auctioneer, No. 77, Queen-Street, or Mr. Snooke, Solicitor, Portsea, Hants.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Butler, of Prescot, in the County of Lancaster, Nutseryman, Seedsman and Fruiterer, at Mr. Bates's, the Legs of Man Inn, in Prescot, on Monday the 10th of June next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as will then be produced;

Lot 1. All that messuage and tenement, called Lead-ber's, with the out-buildings and several closes or parcels of land thereto belonging, known by the names of the Back-house-Hole, the Round-Meadow, the Clover-Hey, the Pingot, the Barn-Meadow, the Acre, and the Two-Acre in Two Parts, containing, by admeasurement, 15 acres and 10 perches of land statute measure; or thereabouts, situate in Eccleston, near Prescot, and now in the occupation of ———

The above premises are subjects to a lease granted by the late Basil Thomas Eccleston, Esq. to Richard Sephton, for a term of years, one of whom only, aged about 56 years, is now in being, and the annual rent of £1.

Lot 2. All that messuage and tenement, in Eccleston aforesaid, called the 1st, and the several closes or parcels of land thereto belonging, known by the names of the Great-Field, the Middle-Field, and the Further-Field, containing, by admeasurement, 15 acres, or thereabouts, statute measure; and in the present occupation of ———

The above premises are also subject to a lease granted by the said Basil Thomas Eccleston, to Richard Pyle, for three lives, two of whom, aged about 62 and 54 years, are now living, at the yearly rent of £10s.

The above lots are freehold of inheritance; and the purchasers of the same will be entitled to the respective Lord's rents before-mentioned, during the continuance of the leases. There is a considerable quantity of healthy young timber upon these estates, which are situated in a fine sporting country, abounding with game, which is preserved with the greatest strictness.

Lot 3. The copyhold inheritance of and in all that messuage or dwelling-house, stables, coach-house, out-buildings, and appurtenances, thereto belonging, situate at the bottom of the Fall-Lane, in Prescot aforesaid, and late in the occupation of the said William Butler.

Lot 4. Also of and in all that messuage or dwelling-house, adjoining the last mentioned lot, and in the possession of Mr. Heyes.

Lot 5. Also of and in all that well accustomed public-house, situate in Fall-Lane aforesaid, commonly called or known by the sign of the Derby Arms, and now in the possession of John Foster.

Lot 6. Also of and in two messuages or dwelling-houses,
