

BARATUM in the Gazette of the 4th November 1814.

For Ensign Waldron Kelly to be Lieutenant, without purchase, vice Rankin, superseded, Read Ensign Waldron Kelly to be Lieutenant, without purchase.

Whitehall, May 20, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto the under-mentioned Officers, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that they may respectively accept and wear the Insignia of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal has honoured them; in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the distinguished courage and intrepidity displayed by those Officers in general actions with the enemy in the Peninsula; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms.

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Michael M'Creagh, Esq. Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, and a Brigadier-General in the Portuguese Service.

William Warre, Esq. a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, Captain in the 23d Regiment of Light Dragoons, and Deputy Quarter-Master-General of the Forces at the Cape of Good Hope.

Whitehall, May 20, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Charles Morgan Carrol, Esq. Captain in His Majesty's 73d (Highland) Regiment of Foot, late of the 87th (or Prince of Wales's Own Irish) Regiment of Foot, and Colonel in the Spanish Service, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the cross of the royal and distinguished Spanish Order of Charles the Third, which His Catholic Majesty Ferdinand the Seventh, King of Spain, hath been pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of the high sense that Sovereign entertains of his meritorious and gallant conduct, in command of a company of the 87th Regiment in the defence of the Beach of Tarifa, on the 31st of December, 1811; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms.

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

No. 17139.

pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 20, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Edmund Thomas Poc, Esq. Captain in His Majesty's 96th Regiment of Foot, and a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Spanish Service, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the cross of the royal and distinguished Spanish Order of Charles the Third, which His Catholic Majesty Ferdinand the Seventh, King of Spain, has been pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of the high sense that Sovereign entertains of his signal intrepidity and meritorious services, in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms.

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.
