

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1816.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgess of the Borough of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, beg leave most respectfully to offer to your Royal Highness our unfeigned and heartfelt congratulations on the marriage of your illustrious daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, a Prince distinguished by so many excellent qualities and personal accomplishments, as give the fairest promise, not only of engaging the affections of your royal daughter, but of conciliating the respect and esteem of the British nation.

Allow us also to express to your Royal Highness, the deep sense we entertain of the regard which your Royal Highness has manifested on this occasion for the welfare of His Majesty's subjects, and to assure your Royal Highness that, in the union of your illustrious daughter with a Protestant Prince of so high a character, we have the strongest pledge for the security of our dearest rights, and for the preservation of our excellent Constitution both in Church and State.

May it please the Supreme Disposer of all Events to grant, that the union of this illustrious pair may prove the source of mutual happiness to themselves, and of great and lasting benefit to these kingdoms; and that your Royal Highness may long live to be a witness of these blessings.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, the 24th day of May, in the 56th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third.

Edward Robert Travers, Mayor.

[Transmitted by S. Horrocks, Esq. M. P. for Preston, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, beg to offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere congratulations on the nuptials of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

Fully sensible of the many blessings which have been experienced by our ancestors and ourselves under the auspicious Government of the Princes of the House of Brunswick, we are anxious to express to your Royal Highness the cordial satisfaction with which we, in common with the rest of His Majesty's faithful subjects, view an event which gives the best security for a continuance of these invaluable blessings, at the same time that it augments the domestic felicity of your Royal Highness.

That the full enjoyment of public prosperity and private happiness may uninterruptedly await your Royal Highness, is our fervent prayer to an allwise and bountiful Providence.

Given under our common seal, in the Council Chamber of the said Borough, the 4th day of June, in the 56th year of His Majesty's reign.

Thomas Tylee, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor of Devizes, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of the Isle of Man, in Tynwald assembled, beg leave to present our humble congratulations to your Royal Highness on the happy and auspicious event of the marriage of Her Royal Highness the