

Almighty will be crown'd with His blessing this union of so great happiness, in the midst of public tranquillity, that it may be the effect of producing a long perspective of splendour to your august House, of inspiring the confidence of the people, and of establishing to the latest posterity the security of the British Empire.

Thos. Kidman, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty;

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Inhabitants of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, embrace this happy occasion to lay at your Majesty's feet our warmest congratulations on the marriage of your illustrious grand-daughter with Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg. Influenced by sentiments of the most fervent affection for your august Family, we sincerely participate in the satisfaction and the joy which fill your royal heart on so desirable an union. The character of the Prince whom she has selected to be the partner of her life, in combination with her own excelling virtues and accomplishments, presents to the illustrious pair the fairest prospect of conjugal and domestic happiness; and to this nation, over whom the beloved Princess, in the source of nature, is apparently destined to reign, that security and protection of its rights and liberties which it has enjoyed under the mild and just Government of our venerable and venerated Monarch. They have, before their eyes a perfect model in his conduct, and in that of your Majesty, whose strict discharge of the religious, social, and relative duties has reflected the brightest glory on that high station, in which the Divine Providence has placed you; and communicating its impulse from that pre-eminence to all ranks and orders, among the subjects of this kingdom, has, under God, been a main cause of confirming the stability of the throne, and preserving the independence of our country, during the violence of that tremendous revolution by which Europe was so long afflicted and laid waste.

That a long continuance of health, and every other blessing, may attend your Majesty, and every branch of the Royal Family, is our most sincere and ardent prayer.

Jas. Bower, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Dean and Canon of His Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within His Castle of Windsor, beg leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere and respectful congratulations on the union of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

It has been our peculiar felicity to have the opportunity of more immediately observing those domestic virtues, which, while they have commanded the admiration of the world, have drawn down to your Majesty the affections, and improved the hearts of His Majesty's subjects.

When we consider the attractive point of view in which the public and private duties have been placed by your Majesty, and the virtues which Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta has already evinced, shall we be deemed presumptuous in expressing that your Majesty will be rewarded in the manner most gratifying to your immortal feelings, by seeing your illustrious descendant exhibiting another bright example of all the duties of her station to an admiring and devoted people. That your Majesty may long enjoy this happy fruit of your virtuous and exemplary conduct, shall be our fervent and unremitting prayer.

[Presented by the Dean and Chapter of Windsor.]

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates, the Clergy, and the other Inhabitants of the Town of Dudley.

Most gracious Queen,

WE, His Majesty's ever loyal and faithful subjects, the Magistrates, the Clergy, and the other Inhabitants of the ancient and Royal Town of Dudley, humbly beg permission to express to your Majesty our cordial congratulations on the joyful and happy occasion of the nuptials of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg.

An union so congenial with the principles of the British Constitution, adorned and cemented by so many virtues and by such natural excellence, cannot fail, with the blessing of Divine Providence, to be happy in itself and a blessing to the nation.

May it be blessed with felicity so universal and unmix'd as the joy which it produces is universal.

May your Majesty long live to witness that felicity; and may the Imperial Crown of this Realm be worn with undiminished lustre by the descendants (inheriting the private as well as public virtues) of our beloved Sovereign and your Majesty, till time shall be no more.

Thomas Hawkes, Chairman.

[Presented by Viscount Dudley and Ward and Lord Elmley.]

Crown-Office, June 18, 1816.

MEMBERS returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Liverpool

The Right Honourable George Canning.

Borough of Gatton

Mark Wood, Esq. in the room of Sir William Congreve, Bart. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, May 1, 1816.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that at Salters' Hall, in London, on Saturday, the 16th day of November next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farms will be let on leases,