

every new source of satisfactory relations to the English nation.

We rejoice in the opportunity afforded us of addressing a Prince for whom we entertain the highest and most profound regard and respect; to assure your Serene Highness how fully we participate in every happiness you can experience, and particularly in your union with so illustrious a British Princess!

May these nuptials, so pleasing to the nation, be productive of permanent felicity to your Royal and Serene Highnesses, and may you both live long in the esteem and affection of a free people.

Signed, by order and on behalf of the Mayor, &c.
Joseph Hooley, jun. Town Clerk.

To which Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

" Gentlemen,
" We return you our best thanks for your loyal address, and the expressions of attachment contained in it, which are very gratifying to us."

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe-Cobourg of Saalfeld, and to Her Royal Highness Charlotte Augusta, Princess of Saxe-Cobourg.

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Spain, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to offer to your Highnesses our humble congratulations on the auspicious event of your marriage.

His Majesty's faithful subjects exult in every event which is calculated to augment the happiness of the Royal House; they pray that many blessings may be derived from these happy nuptials; that your Highnesses, in your exalted station, may long enjoy the affection of a loyal people, grateful to your Highnesses for displaying those virtues which render power amiable, and greatness illustrious; grateful for the benefits of your high example, and for the hopes of future blessings, which it will afford to us and to our posterity.

Given under our common seal, at the City of New Spain, the 8th day of May 1816.

[Presented by the Bishop of Salisbury, Earl of Pembroke, Viscount Folkstone, and Mr. Jervoise.]

To which Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

" Gentlemen,
" We receive your congratulations and assurances of regard with the sincerest pleasure, and it will always afford us happiness to remember them."

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, and Her Royal Highness Princess Charlotte of Wale.

WE, the Lord Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of York, beg leave to approach your Highnesses with our heartfelt congratulations on your recent marriage. Attached to the family of our Sovereign by the freedom and honour which this nation has under them for successive generations enjoyed, an event, which we trust will perpetuate their race, cannot but inspire us with the liveliest pleasure; and that your union may be productive of equal happiness to yourselves, and of prosperity to the country, is our sincere and ardent wish.

That you, Madam, as a wife and a mother will prove a pattern to your sex, we are firmly convinced, and should hereafter the course of events call you to the Throne, we have no doubt you will steadily adhere to those principles of rational liberty, for the support of which your illustrious family was at first selected.

That you, Sir, have become a British subject and a resident in Britain, will we trust through life, be to you a source of happiness and of self congratulation; fully convinced of your excellent and virtuous qualities, the British people receive you amongst them with eagerness and delight; and we are well persuaded that a more ultimate knowledge and connection will hereafter cement and fix for ever that bond of attachment which now unites them to you.

That you may enjoy every happiness to which a proper and suitable marriage can give rise, is our ardent wish and sincere prayer.

To which Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

" Gentlemen,
" It affords us sincere pleasure to be assured of your regard, and we have the greatest satisfaction in receiving your Address and congratulations."

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, &c.

THE Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, and Town Clerk of the ancient and loyal Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, in Common Council assembled, have great pleasure and satisfaction in offering their warmest congratulations to your Serene Highness on your safe arrival in this kingdom, and on your Serene Highness's most happy nuptials with the Princess Charlotte Augusta, the beloved daughter of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

We feel assured that the dignity of the birth of your illustrious bride, the presumptive heiress to the Throne of these realms, is equalled by the virtuous and amiable qualities of Her Royal Highness, and that the people of this country regard the graces and virtues which adorn Her Royal Highness, as the happy omen of continued blessings to the empire.

That your Serene Highness may long live to enjoy the blessings of conjugal felicity, and that your Royal Bride may realise your wishes with a
