

and hope that its dignity will be so maintained by your Royal Highness, as to invest your reign with the glory which illustrates those of the two female Sovereigns who are so pre-eminently conspicuous in the British annals.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringuen, Prince of Cobourg Saalfeld, &c.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey, assembled by the High Sheriff of the said County.

SIR,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness with the offers of our warmest congratulations on your recent union with the Princess Charlotte Augusta. It must afford much gratification to your Serene Highness that, owing to your eminent qualities and high deserts, your destinies have been associated with those of a Princess no less distinguished by accomplishments than exalted in rank, and that, in consequence of this alliance, you are joyfully adopted by a country equally famed in arts and arms. We beg leave to add our earnest wishes, that your Serene Highness may long enjoy and adorn the elevated station you now hold in this great and glorious country.

[Presented by the Marquess of Anglesey.]

To which Addresses Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

"Pray assure the inhabitants of the county of Anglesey how highly we are gratified in this instance of their attention; and that we receive their congratulations with the sincerest pleasure."

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Saxe Cobourg.

Madam,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to offer our warmest congratulations upon the recent and auspicious nuptials of your Royal Highness with His Serene Highness the Prince of Cobourg.

We anticipate, with peculiar pleasure and satisfaction, the happiest results from so distinguished and happy an union, primarily to your Royal Highness and your illustrious and amiable Consort, and secondly to all ranks of His Majesty's subjects, in the hearts of whom sentiments of the strongest affection and reverence, will ever be indelibly engraven, by the affectionate regard to the interest and happiness of this highly favoured Isle, which your Royal Highness has so fully manifested by this illustrious alliance.

We earnestly hope that in this happy union every felicity may attend your Royal Highness and your Royal Consort; and that you may be crowned with every blessing which can promote and insure, to your Royal Highness all earthly happiness.

Given under our common seal, the twenty-fifth day of May, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringuen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, &c.

THE Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, in Common Council assembled, feel great joy in the opportunity of congratulating your Serene Highness on your safe arrival in this kingdom, and on your auspicious nuptials with the virtuous and amiable Princess Charlotte Augusta, presumptive heiress of these realms; a Princess no less famed by her high and exalted birth, than by the many graces and virtuous accomplishments which are so well known to adorn her royal mind, and which are so pre-eminently calculated, in an alliance thus formed, to produce all the happiness that the married state can afford.

May your Serene Highness and your Royal Bride long live to partake of the blessings which Providence has kindly preserved for you, and may every happiness attend you throughout a long and virtuous life.

Given under our common seal, the twenty-fifth day of May, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

[Presented by Mr. Williams, Recorder, and Mr. Meyler and Mr. Paulett Mildmay.]

To which Addresses Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

"We are much gratified in your assurances of regard; and we receive the congratulations of the city of Winchester with the greatest satisfaction."

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, and His Serene Highness Prince Leopold George Frederick of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, in Town-Hall assembled, beg leave to offer your Royal and Serene Highnesses our sincere congratulations on your recent marriage; and to express our anxious but confident hope, that your union may prove a source of perpetual happiness to your Royal and Serene Highnesses, and a lasting benefit to the British empire, as it adds additional lustre to the House of Brunswick. Witness These, High-Bailiff.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Gaitskell (Mover), Mr. Thomas Starling Baisau (Second), Charles Calvert and Charles Barclay, Esqrs. (Representatives for Southwark), and Messrs. Florence Young, Samuel Herbert, James Freeman, Joseph Prestwick, and John Clutton.]

To which Address Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

"It will ever afford us satisfaction, to remember this instance of regard and attention in the inha-