On Tuesday the 16th of July,

The private gentlemen who receive annuities from the late 1st and 2d troops of horse guards; also the pensioners from the several regiments who have been admitted on account of blindness.

It is also ordered and directed, that all out-pensioners belonging to the said Hospital, do pay particular attention to their instructions, which they are required to produce at the time of payment, by which they are ordered to transmit to the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Land Forces in London, their affidavits as therein prescribed, on, or immediately after every quarter-day, without which their names will not be entered on the pay-lists for the subsequent quarter, and they are not afterwards to change their place of abode, as specified in their affidavits, without unavoidable necessity, and duly notifying the same.

And that if any pensioner shall fraudulently attempt to receive a double payment of his pension, either at Chelsea, or at different places, he shall be struck off the list, and forfeit all benefit arising from this Establishment.

G. Aust, Secretary and Registrar.

Whitehall, June 29, 1816.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Saturday the 22d instant, a barn and out-house belonging to Thomas Gooch, Esq. at Milford-House, near Godalmin, in which was a threshing machine, and a large quantity of grain, was entirely consumed by fire, and that there is every reason to believe the same was set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by the said Thomas Gooch, Esq.

Whitehall, June 28, 1816.
