

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Town Clerk of the ancient and loyal Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Town Clerk of the ancient and loyal Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most sincere congratulations on the recent and auspicious nuptials of His Majesty's beloved daughter, Her Royal Highness Princess Mary, with His Royal Highness William Frederick, Duke of Gloucester and Edinburgh.

From our constant observation and experience of the many amiable qualities of the Royal Bride, and from the well known virtues which adorn her illustrious Consort, we can but anticipate the most happy results of the union which is now the subject of our humble congratulations; and we confidently hope, that a numerous offspring may hand down to posterity, the living examples of their parent's exalted virtues.

That your Royal Highness may long live to participate, with the members of your illustrious House, in the happiness of the royal pair, is our most earnest desire.

Given under the common seal of the Borough aforesaid, at the Guildhall within the said Borough, the 12th day of August, in the year 1816, James Atkins, Mayor.

[Transmitted by His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses they were pleased to receive very graciously:

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, and to His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg of Saalfeld.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, beg leave humbly to offer our sincere congratulations to your Royal Highness and to your Serene Highness upon your recent auspicious marriage. We also rejoice in the opportunity of assuring your Royal and Serene Highnesses how greatly we shall participate in every happiness you can experience; and we earnestly pray, that your nuptials may be productive of uninterrupted felicity to yourselves, and permanent prosperity to the United Kingdom, and that you, and your posterity, may ever live in the esteem and affection of a free and loyal people.

Given under our common seal, at Beverley aforesaid, the 8th day of July, in the 56th year of His Majesty's reign.

Robt. Ramsey, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Charles Forbes, Esq. M. P. and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To which Address Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

"We have great pleasure in receiving your congratulations: we thank you for this proof of your regard, and have every confidence in your best wishes and interest in our happiness."

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales and His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

The humble Address and Congratulation of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of Marischal College, and University of Aberdeen.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of Marischal College, and University of Aberdeen, beg leave, with all humility and respect, to present to your Royal and Serene Highnesses our most sincere and expressive congratulations on your auspicious union, so recently contracted. We cordially join, with our fellow-subjects, in praying that, as it has been founded on mutual esteem and affection, it may be cemented by the same amiable and generous principles, and be productive of all that conjugal felicity, which such an honourable and disinterested connexion is calculated to afford, and of all that benefit to the British empire which is so generally anticipated by His Majesty's subjects. That the Supreme Disposer of all events may sanction your illustrious marriage with his abundant blessing, may preserve and prosper, through a long succession of years, your Royal and Serene Highnesses, and may maintain, protect, and defend, on the throne of this United Kingdom, the illustrious House of Brunswick, to the most remote generations, is, may it please your Royal and Serene Highnesses, the fervent wish and prayer of His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, and of your Royal and Serene Highnesses humble and obedient servants,

Huntly, Chancellor; Chas. Forbes, Rector; W. L. Brown, S. S. D. and P. Principal; Pat. Copland, Math. P.; Ro. Hamilton, LL. D. P. P.; Jo. Stuart, Lit. Gr. P.; Willm. Livingston, M. D. M. P.; Geo.
